What is this product?

The Fund is a single fund which is an open-ended mutual fund corporation registered under the laws of the Cayman Islands.

Objective and Investment Strategy

Investment Objective

The Fund aims to provide capital appreciation for investors. In addition, in respect of the Distribution Classes, the Fund also intends to pay monthly dividends equal to all or substantially all of the net income attributable to each of the Distribution Classes. Please note that there is neither a guarantee that such dividends will be made nor will there be a target level of dividend payout.

Investment Policies

Debt securities in general

The Fund aims to achieve its investment objective by investing not less than 70% of its Net Asset Value in a portfolio of debt securities issued by or fully guaranteed by (i) listed or unlisted corporations which have their main operations (or majority of assets) in, or have their majority of their income derived from Greater China (comprising the People's Republic of China ("PRC"), Hong Kong, Macau and Taiwan), and (ii) governments and/or government related entities in Greater China; and where the Manager believes such debt securities are being traded at significant discount to their underlying intrinsic values. For the avoidance of doubt, the issuers of the debt securities who have a majority of their income derived from Greater China as mentioned in (i) above may be based in or outside Greater China.

Selection of debt securities for investment by the Fund will be based on the creditworthiness of the issuer (and the parent company or associated company guarantor, in the case of debt securities issued by a special purpose vehicle (“SPVs”) which is fully guaranteed by the parent company or associated company) by forecasting the issuer’s (and/or parent company or associated company guarantor’s) credit profile by at least 2 years with a primary focus on the issuer’s (and or parent company or associated company guarantor’s) corporate profile, corporate strategy, forecasted cash flow and financial profile. Investment analysis will also take into account the leverage, liquidity, management and business of the issuer (and the parent company or associated company guarantor, in the case of debt securities issued by a SPV which is fully guaranteed by the parent company or associated company).

The debt securities in which the Fund may invest shall include, but are not limited to, convertible and non-convertible debt securities, fixed and floating rate bonds and high-yield bonds. Such debt securities (or the issuers of such debt securities) are across all ratings and thus, such debt securities (or the issuers of such debt securities) may be rated or unrated or rated below investment grade credit rating, such as below Moody’s “Baa3” or below Standard & Poor’s “BBB-”. Also, the Fund may invest significantly in below investment grade debt securities. The Fund however, will not invest more than 10% of its Net Asset Value in debt securities issued or guaranteed by any single country with a credit rating below investment grade. For the avoidance of doubt, a “single country” shall include a country, its government, a public or local authority or nationalized industry of that country. Also, the debt securities in which the Fund may invest are mainly denominated in USD.

The Manager will invest in a broadly diversified portfolio of debt securities with no fixed duration, term structure or industry sector weightings in the allocation of assets in Greater China. Selection of investments will be determined by the availability of attractive investment opportunities.

RMB denominated debt securities issued outside the PRC

The Fund may also invest up to 30% of its latest Net Asset Value in Renminbi (“RMB”) denominated debt securities issued outside the PRC including RMB denominated debt securities with settlements, coupon payments and principal repayments paid in another currency based on prevailing foreign exchange rates against the RMB. The Fund may invest up to 15% of its latest Net Asset Value in Synthetic RMB Debt Securities, being offshore debt securities denominated in RMB but settled in other currencies.

Debt securities issued by SPVs

The Fund’s investment in subordinated debt securities issued by SPVs will not exceed 15% of its latest Net Asset Value. Currently, the Fund intends to invest only in debt securities issued by SPVs which are fully, unconditionally and irrevocably guaranteed by its parent company or associated company. Such parent company or associated company will be of substance and is not a SPV itself.

Instruments with loss-absorption features

The Fund may invest less than 30% of its Net Asset Value in instruments with loss-absorption features (“LAPs”) such as contingent convertible bonds issued by financial institutions, non-preferred senior debt instruments, certain Additional Tier 1 and Tier 2 capital instruments, and external loss-absorbing capacity debt instruments. These instruments may be subject to contingent write-down or contingent conversion to ordinary shares on the occurrence of trigger event(s).

Equity securities

The Fund may invest in equity securities and may invest up to 10% of the Fund’s latest Net Asset Value in China B-Shares. Currently, the Fund does not intend to invest either directly or indirectly in China A-Shares. Prior approval of the SFC will be sought and not less than one month’s prior notice will be given to the Shareholders in the event the Manager wishes to change the investment policy in relation to China A-Shares and China B-Shares as aforesaid. In such circumstance, the Explanatory Memorandum and the Product Key Facts Statement will be updated to reflect such change as soon as reasonably practicable.

Financial derivative instruments and other investments

The Fund currently may use financial derivative instruments (such as futures contracts, options and warrants) for hedging and investment purposes. The Fund may invest in index and currency swaps and currency forwards (which are normally traded over-the-counter) for hedging purposes only.

Currently, the Fund does not intend to (i) invest in structured products and mortgage-backed securities; and (ii) engage in securities lending transactions, sale and repurchase transactions and reverse repurchase transactions. The Fund also does not intend to engage in any over-the counter transactions other than index and currency swaps and currency forwards. If required under the Code, prior approval of the SFC will be sought and not less than one month's prior notice will be given to the shareholders in the event the Manager wishes to invest in the aforesaid instruments or engage in any of the aforesaid transactions. In such circumstance, the Explanatory Memorandum and the Product Key Facts Statement will be updated to reflect such change as soon as reasonably practicable.

Subject to the above investment strategy and the investment restrictions as set out in the Explanatory Memorandum, the Fund may also invest in commodity-based investments, depository receipts, currencies and interest rates instruments. Currently, the Fund does not intend to invest more than 10% of its latest Net Asset Value in such instruments. The Fund may invest up to 20% of its latest Net Asset Value in units in any unit trust or shares in any mutual fund corporation or any other collective investment scheme (including those managed by the Manager or its connected persons).

The Fund's portfolio may also temporarily include cash and cash equivalents, up to 100% of its latest Net Asset Value, under exceptional circumstances (such as in the event of market crashes, major crisis or to mitigate the risk of potential sharp reversals and falls in the equity or bond markets) for cash flow management or for reducing market exposure.

The aggregate value of the Fund's investments in securities issued by a single entity (other than a collective investment scheme) may not exceed 10% of its latest Net Asset Value provided that the total Net Asset Value of securities (other than units in any unit trust or shares in any mutual fund corporation or any other collective investment scheme (including those managed by the Manager or its connected persons)) held in the issuing entities in each of which it invests more than 5% of its Net Asset Value is less than 40% of its latest Net Asset Value.

Use of Derivatives / Investment in Derivatives

The Fund's net derivative exposure may be up to 50% of its Net Asset Value.

What are the key risks?

Investment involves risks. Please refer to the Explanatory Memorandum for details including the risk factors.

1. Investment risk

- The Fund's investment portfolio may fall in value due to any of the key risk factors below and therefore your investment in the Fund may suffer losses. The income of the Fund and its Net Asset Value may be adversely affected. There is no guarantee of the repayment of principal.

2. Interest rates risks

- Investment in the Fund is subject to interest rates risks. In general, the prices of debt securities rise when interest rates fall, whilst their prices fall when interest rates rise.

3. Debt securities issued by SPVs

- Investments in debt securities issued by SPVs may expose the Fund to additional risks such as the credit/default risk of both the SPV and the parent company or associated company (see "Credit risk" below) and risks relating to the enforceability of the guarantee issued by the parent company or associated company of such SPV.
- If the parent company or associated company defaults in any of its other debt obligations, this may trigger a cross-default which may then affect the ability of the parent company or associated company to meet its obligations under the guarantee. This may adversely affect the value of the debt securities issued by the SPV and guaranteed by its parent company or associated company.

- Investments in debt securities of a subordinated nature issued by SPVs will have a lower priority of claim in the event of the relevant issuer's liquidation or bankruptcy as they rank behind holders of unsubordinated debt securities but before holders of equity securities. The Fund is therefore exposed to higher credit / insolvency risk of its counterparties as a holder of subordinated debt securities than as a holder of unsubordinated debt securities.

4. Credit risk

- The Fund is exposed to the credit or default risk of issuers of bonds or other debt securities that the Fund invests in. The issuers of such instruments may incur difficulties in making full and timely repayments of principal and interest, which may lead to a default and, ultimately, a fall in the value of the Fund. Some of the debt securities are offered on an unsecured basis without collateral. As a result, if the issuer becomes bankrupt, the Fund will become an unsecured creditor of such issuers.

5. Unrated or below investment grade and high yielding debt securities risk

- The Fund may significantly invest in high yielding securities which (or the issuers of which) may be unrated or rated below investment grade. Such securities are generally subject to lower liquidity, higher volatility and greater risk of loss of principal and interest than high-rated debt securities.

6. Credit rating downgrading risk

- The credit rating of a debt instrument or its issuer may subsequently be downgraded. Credit ratings assigned by rating agencies are subject to limitations and do not guarantee the creditworthiness of the securities and/or issuers at all times. In the event of such downgrading, the value of the Fund may be adversely affected. The Manager may or may not dispose of the securities that are being downgraded.

7. Sovereign debt risk

- The Fund's investment in securities issued or guaranteed by governments may be exposed to political, social and economic risks. In adverse situations, the sovereign issuers may not be able or willing to repay the principal and/ or interest when due or may request the Fund to participate in restructuring such debts. The Fund may suffer significant losses when there is a default of sovereign debt issuers.

8. Valuation risk

- Valuation of the Fund's investments may involve uncertainties and judgmental determinations. If such valuation turns out to be incorrect, this may affect the Net Asset Value calculation of the Fund.

9. Liquidity of Investment Portfolio

- The debt securities in the Greater China region may be subject to higher volatility and lower liquidity compared to more developed markets. The prices of securities traded in such markets may be subject to fluctuations. The bid and offer spreads of the price of such securities may be large and the Fund may incur significant trading costs.
- The debt securities in which the Fund invests (including debt securities issued by SPVs) may not be listed on a stock exchange or a securities market where trading is conducted on a regular basis. Even if the debt securities are listed, the market for such securities may be inactive and the trading volume may be low. If sizeable redemption requests are received, the Fund may need to liquidate its investments at a substantial discount in order to satisfy such requests and the Fund may suffer losses in trading such securities.

10. RMB denominated debt securities risks

- RMB is currently not freely convertible and is subject to exchange controls and restrictions.
- Non-RMB based investors are exposed to foreign exchange risk and there is no guarantee that the value of RMB against the investors' base currencies will not depreciate. Any depreciation of the RMB could adversely affect the investors' investments in the Fund. Although offshore RMB ("CNH") and onshore CNY ("CNY") are the same currency, they trade at different rates. Any divergence between CNH and CNY may adversely impact investors.
- As the quantity of RMB denominated debt securities issued outside the PRC that are available to the Fund is currently limited, the Fund may not have exposure to RMB denominated debt securities as it intended.

- The “Dim Sum” bond (i.e. bonds issued outside of the PRC but denominated in RMB) market is still a relatively small market which is more susceptible to volatility and illiquidity. The operation of the “Dim Sum” bond market as well as new issuances could be disrupted causing a fall in the Net Asset Value of the Fund should there be any promulgation of new rules which limit or restrict the ability of issuers to raise RMB by way of bond issuances and/or reversal or suspension of the liberalisation of the offshore RMB (CNH) market by the relevant regulator(s).
- Under exceptional circumstances, payment of redemptions and/or dividend payment in RMB may be delayed due to the exchange controls and restrictions applicable to RMB.

11. Risk relating to dividends paid out of capital

- The Manager may at its discretion pay dividend out of the capital of the Fund. In respect of the Distribution Classes, investors should note that payment of dividends out of capital amounts to a return or withdrawal of part of their original investment or from any capital gains attributable to the original investment. Any such distributions will generally result in an immediate reduction of the Net Asset Value per Participating Share of the Fund.
- The distribution amount and Net Asset Value of the hedged share classes may be adversely affected by differences in the interest rates of the reference currency of the hedged share classes and the Fund’s base currency (i.e. US dollars), resulting in an increase in the amount of distribution that is paid out of capital and hence a greater erosion of capital than other non-hedged classes.
- The Manager may amend this policy subject to the SFC’s prior approval and by giving not less than one month’s prior notice to investors.

12. Dividend risk

- For the Distribution Classes, the Manager may determine if, and to what extent, dividends may be paid out of capital where the income/capital gain generated by the Fund is insufficient to pay a distribution declared by the Fund. However, there is neither a guarantee that such dividends will be made nor will there be a target level of dividend payout. A high distribution yield does not imply a positive or high return.
- The Manager currently does not intend to pay dividends in respect of the Accumulation Classes. Accordingly, an investment in the Accumulation Classes may not be suitable for investors seeking income returns for financial or tax planning purposes.

13. Geographical concentration risk

- The Fund’s investments are concentrated in the Greater China region. The value of the Fund may be more volatile than that of a fund having a more diverse portfolio of investments.
- The value of the Fund may be more susceptible to adverse economic, political, policy, foreign exchange, liquidity, tax, legal or regulatory event affecting the Greater China region.
- The Fund invests in the China and Taiwan markets which may involve increased risks and special considerations not typically associated with investment in more developed economies or markets, such as liquidity risks, currency risks/ control, political and economic uncertainties, legal and taxation risks, settlement risks, custody risk and the likelihood of a high degree of volatility.

14. China tax considerations

- There are risks and uncertainties associated with the current PRC tax laws, regulations and practice in respect of the Fund’s investments in RMB denominated debt securities issued by PRC issuers (which may have retrospective effect). Any increased tax liabilities on the Fund may adversely affect the Fund’s value.
- Currently, based on professional and independent advice from tax advisor, the Manager will not make any tax provisions for PRC taxes in respect of the Fund. In case of any actual tax liabilities imposed on the Fund which will be debited from the Fund’s assets, the Fund’s Net Asset Value will be adversely affected. Depending on the timing of their subscriptions and/or redemptions, investors may be disadvantaged.

15. Risks of investing in convertible bonds

- Convertible bonds are a hybrid between debt and equity, permitting holders to convert into shares in the company issuing the bond at a specified future date. As such, convertibles will be exposed to equity movement and greater volatility than straight bond investments. Investments in convertible bonds are subject to the same interest rate risk, credit risk, liquidity risk and prepayment risk associated with comparable straight bond investments.

16. Foreign exchange risk

- The Fund is denominated in US dollars but may issue classes designated in a currency other than its base currency. In addition, underlying investments of the Fund may be denominated in a currency other than its base currency. The NAV of the Fund may therefore be affected unfavorably by fluctuations in the exchange rates between these currencies and the base currency and by changes in exchange rate controls.

17. Risks relating to currency hedging and the currency hedged classes (“Currency Hedged Classes”)

- The Manager may (but is not obliged to) enter into certain currency related transactions in order to hedge the currency exposure of the assets of the Fund attributable to a particular class into the class currency of the relevant class. Investors in the Currency Hedged Classes may have exposure to currencies other than the currency of that Currency Hedged Class. Investors should also be aware that the hedging strategy may substantially limit the benefits of any potential increase in value of a Currency Hedged Class expressed in the class currency, if the Currency Hedged Class’ denominating currency falls against the base currency of the Fund.
- The precise hedging strategy applied to a particular Currency Hedged Class may vary. In addition, there is no guarantee that the desired hedging instruments will be available or hedging strategy will achieve its desired result. In such circumstances, investors of the Currency Hedged Class may still be subject to the currency exchange risk on an unhedged basis.
- If the counterparties of the instruments used for hedging purposes default, investors of the Currency Hedged Classes may be exposed to the currency exchange risk on an unhedged basis and may therefore suffer further losses.

(incorporated as an exempted open-ended investment company with limited liability in the Cayman Islands)

INTRODUCTION

Value Partners Greater China High Yield Income Fund is an exempted open-ended investment company incorporated on 3 February 2012 in the Cayman Islands with limited liability.

INVESTMENT OBJECTIVE, INVESTMENT POLICIES AND INVESTMENT AND BORROWING RESTRICTIONS

Investment Objective and Policies

Investment Objective

The investment objective of the Fund is to provide capital appreciation for investors. In addition, in respect of the Distribution Classes (as defined below), the Fund also intends to pay monthly dividends equal to all or substantially all of the net income attributable to each of the Distribution Classes. Please note that there is neither a guarantee that such dividends will be made nor will there be a target level of dividend payout.

Investment Policies

Debt securities in general

The Fund aims to achieve its investment objective by investing not less than 70% of its Net Asset Value in a portfolio of debt securities issued by or fully guaranteed by (i) listed or unlisted corporations which have their main operations (or majority of assets) in, or have their majority of their income derived from Greater China (the region comprising the PRC, Hong Kong, Macau and Taiwan), and (ii) governments and/or government related entities in Greater China; and where the Manager believes such debt securities are being traded at significant discount to their underlying intrinsic values. For the avoidance of doubt, the issuers of the debt securities who have a majority of their income derived from Greater China as mentioned in (i) above may be based in or outside Greater China.

VALUE PARTNERS GREATER CHINA HIGH YIELD INCOME FUND

(incorporated as an exempted open-ended investment company with limited liability in the Cayman Islands)

Selection of debt securities for investment by the Fund will be based on the creditworthiness of the issuer (and the parent company or associated company guarantor, in the case of debt securities issued by a special purpose vehicle which is fully guaranteed by the parent company or associated company) by forecasting the issuer's (and/or parent company or associated company guarantor's) credit profile by at least 2 years with a primary focus on the issuer's (and/or parent company or associated company guarantor's) corporate profile, corporate strategy, forecasted cash flow and financial profile. Investment analysis will also take into account the leverage, liquidity, management and business of the issuer (and the parent company or associated company guarantor, in the case of debt securities issued by a special purpose vehicle which is fully guaranteed by the parent company or associated company).

The debt securities in which the Fund may invest shall include, but are not limited to, convertible and non-convertible debt securities, fixed and floating rate bonds and high-yield bonds. Such debt securities (or the issuers of such debt securities) are across all ratings and thus, such debt securities (or the issuers of such debt securities) may be rated or unrated or rated below investment grade credit rating, such as below Moody's "Baa3" or below Standard & Poor's "BBB-". Also, the Fund may invest significantly in below investment grade debt securities. The Fund however, will not invest more than 10% of its Net Asset Value in debt securities issued or guaranteed by any single country with a credit rating below investment grade. For the avoidance of doubt, a "single country" shall include a country, its government, a public or local authority or nationalized industry of that country.

Also, the debt securities in which the Fund may invest are mainly denominated in USD.

The Manager will invest in a broadly diversified portfolio of debt securities with no fixed duration, term structure or industry sector weightings in the allocation of assets in Greater China. Selection of investments will be determined by the availability of attractive investment opportunities.

RMB denominated debt securities issued outside the PRC

The Fund may also invest up to 30% of its latest Net Asset Value in RMB denominated debt securities issued outside the PRC including RMB denominated debt securities with settlements, coupon payments and principal repayments paid in another currency based on prevailing foreign exchange rates against the RMB. The Fund may invest up to 15% of its latest Net Asset Value in Synthetic RMB Debt Securities.

VALUE PARTNERS GREATER CHINA HIGH YIELD INCOME FUND

(incorporated as an exempted open-ended investment company with limited liability in the Cayman Islands)

Debt securities issued by special purpose vehicles

The Fund's investment in subordinated debt securities issued by special purpose vehicles will not exceed 15% of its latest Net Asset Value. Currently, the Fund intends to invest only in debt securities issued by special purpose vehicles which are fully, unconditionally and irrevocably guaranteed by its parent company or associated company. Such parent company or associated company will be of substance and is not a special purpose vehicle itself.

Instruments with loss-absorption features

The Fund may invest less than 30% of its Net Asset Value in instruments with loss-absorption features ("LAPs") such as contingent convertible bonds issued by financial institutions, non-preferred senior debt instruments, certain Additional Tier 1 and Tier 2 capital instruments and external loss-absorbing capacity ("LAC") debt instruments.

LAPs are debt instruments with features of contingent write-down or contingent conversion to ordinary shares on the occurrence of the following: (a) when a financial institution is near or at the point of non-viability; or (b) when the capital ratio of a financial institution falls to a specified level. These LAPs instruments may include:

- (i) debt instruments that meet the qualifying criteria to be Additional Tier 1 Capital or Tier 2 Capital under the Banking (Capital) Rules and similar debt instruments issued under an equivalent regime of non-Hong Kong jurisdictions;
- (ii) external LAC debt instruments under the Financial Institutions (Resolution) (Loss-absorbing Capacity Requirements – Banking Sector) Rules pursuant to the Financial Institutions Resolution Ordinance of Hong Kong (Cap. 628) ("FIRO");
- (iii) debt instruments issued under a regime of non-Hong Kong jurisdictions which implements the Financial Stability Board's standards for "Total Loss-absorbing Capacity Term Sheet";
- (iv) "non-preferred senior debt instruments" (may be named as "Tier 3" in some jurisdictions) and senior or subordinated debt instruments issued by a holding company of a financial institution which fall within the above circumstances; and
- (v) contingent convertible bonds ("CoCos") issued by financial institutions which upon the occurrence of the trigger event, may be converted into shares of the issuer (potentially at a discounted price), or may be subject to the permanent write-down to zero.

VALUE PARTNERS GREATER CHINA HIGH YIELD INCOME FUND

(incorporated as an exempted open-ended investment company with limited liability in the Cayman Islands)

For the avoidance of doubt, instruments in the legal form of equities (including ordinary shares and preferred shares) and all types of deposits (including certificate of deposits) are excluded.

Equity securities

The Fund may invest in equity securities and may invest up to 10% of the Fund's latest Net Asset Value in China B-Shares. Currently, the Fund does not intend to invest either directly or indirectly in China A-Shares. Prior approval of the SFC will be sought and not less than one month's prior notice will be given to the Shareholders in the event the Manager wishes to change the investment policy in relation to China A-Shares and China B-Shares as aforesaid. In such circumstance, the Explanatory Memorandum and the Product Key Facts Statement will be updated to reflect such change as soon as reasonably practicable.

Financial derivative instruments and other investments

The Fund currently may use financial derivative instruments (such as futures contracts, options and warrants) for hedging and investment purposes. The Fund may invest in index and currency swaps and currency forwards (which are normally traded over-the-counter) for hedging purposes only.

Currently, the Fund does not intend to (i) invest in structured products and mortgaged-backed securities; and (ii) engage in securities lending transactions, sale and repurchase transactions and reverse repurchase transactions. The Fund also does not intend to engage in any over-the-counter transactions other than index and currency swaps and currency forwards. Prior approval of the SFC will be sought and not less than one month's prior notice will be given to the Shareholders in the event the Manager wishes to invest in the aforesaid instruments or engage in any of the aforesaid transactions. In such circumstance, the Explanatory Memorandum and the Product Key Facts Statement will be updated to reflect such change as soon as reasonably practicable.

Subject to the above investment strategy and the investment restrictions (as set out below under the section headed "Investment Restrictions"), the Fund may also, invest in commodity-based investments depository receipts, units in any unit trust or shares in any mutual fund corporation or any other collective investment scheme (including those managed by the Manager or its Connected Persons), currencies and interest rates and may hold cash, short-term deposits, and other money instruments (as considered appropriate by the Manager). Currently, the Fund does not intend to invest more than 10% of its latest Net Asset Value in such instruments.

Liquidity Risk Management

The Manager has established a liquidity management policy which enables it to identify, monitor and manage the liquidity risks of the Fund and to ensure that the liquidity profile of the investments of the Fund will facilitate compliance with the Fund's obligation to meet redemption requests. Such policy, combined with the liquidity management tools of the Manager, also seeks to achieve fair treatment of the Shareholders and safeguard the interests of the remaining Shareholders in case of sizeable redemptions.

The Manager's liquidity policy takes into account the investment strategy, the liquidity profile, the redemption policy, the dealing frequency, the ability to enforce redemption limitations and the fair valuation policies of the Fund. These measures seek to ensure fair treatment and transparency for all investors.

The liquidity management policy involves monitoring the profile of investments held by the Fund on an on-going basis to ensure that such investments are appropriate to the redemption policy as stated under the section headed “INVESTING IN THE FUND”, and will facilitate compliance with the Fund's obligation to meet redemption requests. Further, the liquidity management policy includes details on periodic stress testing carried out by the Manager to manage the liquidity risk of the Fund under normal and exceptional market conditions.

- the Directors have the power, in determining the Subscription Price of a Participating Share, to add to the Net Asset Value per Participating Share of the relevant Class (before making any rounding adjustment) an amount, for the account of the Fund which they consider to be an appropriate allowance to reflect (a) the difference between the last traded price (or the mean between the last available bid and asked prices) of the investments of the Fund and the latest available asked price of such investments, (b) all stamp and other duties, taxes, governmental charges, brokerage, bank charges, transfer fees and registration fees which would be incurred for the account of the Fund in investing an amount equal to that Net Asset Value per Participating Share of the relevant Class (as detailed under the heading entitled "Calculation of Subscription Price and Redemption Price" in the section headed "CALCULATION OF NET ASSET VALUE"); and
- similarly, the Directors may, when determining the Redemption Price of a Participating Share, deduct for the account of the Fund from the Net Asset Value per Participating Share of the relevant Class (before making any rounding adjustment) an amount which they consider to be an appropriate allowance to reflect (a) the difference between the last traded price (or the mean between the last available bid and asked prices) of the investments of the Fund and the latest available bid price of such investments, and (b) all stamp and other duties, taxes, governmental charges, brokerage, bank charges, transfer fees and registration fees which would be incurred for the account of the Fund in realising assets or closing out positions to provide funds to meet any redemption request (as detailed under the heading entitled "Calculation of Subscription Price and Redemption Price" in the section headed "CALCULATION OF NET ASSET VALUE").

Payment Procedure

Generally, no Participating Shares will be issued unless and until the relevant application moneys have been received in cleared funds by or on behalf of the Fund. Please refer to the section headed “Subsequent Issues” above on cancellation of any Participating Shares which may have been issued if payment in full in cleared funds has not been received by the relevant Payment Deadline. Unless the applicant has made arrangements with the Administrator, the Administrator’s Delegate and/or the Manager to make payment in some other currency, payment net of any bank charges must be made in the Class Currency of the relevant Class of Participating Shares by telegraphic transfer to the bank account(s) specified in the Subscription Application or by some other method as specified in the Subscription Application. Application moneys other than in the Class Currency will be converted into the Class Currency and all bank charges and other conversion costs, if any, will be deducted from the application moneys prior to investment in Participating Shares. Any currency conversion will be effected on a timely basis by the Administrator’s Delegate upon receipt of instructions from the Manager and shall be converted at the rate (whether official or otherwise) which the Manager shall in its absolute discretion deem appropriate to the circumstances having regard, inter alia, to any premium or discount which it considers may be relevant and to costs of exchange. None of the Fund, the Manager, the Administrator or the Administrator’s Delegate will be liable to any Shareholder for any loss suffered by such Shareholder arising from the said currency conversion.

The Manager may in its discretion agree to accept payment for Participating Shares in specie instead of in cash. In such circumstances, the assets to be transferred to the Fund will be valued in such manner as the Manager may determine (subject to such valuation not exceeding the maximum value that would apply if those assets were valued in accordance with the valuation rules described below in the section headed “Calculation of Net Asset Value”), and the relevant investor will be issued Participating Shares having an equivalent value to such assets, after allowing for payment of the Initial Charge (if any) to the Manager. Participating Shares will only be issued on vesting of the assets in or for the account of the Fund. Any costs of transferring the assets to or for the account of the Fund (including any applicable charges, levies or stamp duties) will be borne by the relevant investor and, accordingly, will be deducted from the value of such assets in determining the number of Participating Shares to be issued to such investor unless the Manager agrees otherwise.

Please note that for cleared funds to be received in Hong Kong before 5.00 p.m. on the closing date of the Initial Offer Period or any subsequent Payment Deadline, payment must be made for value at least one business day in New York (for US dollars) or one Business Day in Hong Kong (for Hong Kong dollars) preceding such close or Payment Deadline, as the case may be.

No money should be paid to any intermediary in Hong Kong who is not licensed or registered to carry on Type 1 regulated activity under Part V of the Securities and Futures Ordinance.

Participating Shares will be in registered form and certificates will not be issued. All application moneys must originate from an account held in the name of the subscriber. No third party payments shall be accepted.

Although Participating Shares will not be issued until the applicable Subscription Day, paid monies are immediately deposited into the Fund's bank account without interest. Prior to the issuance of Participating Shares on the applicable Subscription Day, the Administrator may, at the direction of the Manager, release funds from the Fund to investment intermediaries of the Fund (if any) to ensure that investments can be effected on the relevant Subscription Day.

Restrictions on Issue

The Manager has an absolute discretion to accept or reject in whole (or in part) any application for Participating Shares. In particular, Participating Shares may not be offered or sold to any persons other than a Qualified Holder. In the event that an application is rejected in whole or in part, application monies (or where an application is accepted in part only, the balance thereof) will be returned without interest by telegraphic transfer (or such other method as agreed by the Manager but in any case no cheque will be issued) to the account in the name of such applicant and at the risk and expense of the applicant. Investors must notify the Administrator's Delegate as soon as practicable if there is any change in the information provided by the investor in the Subscription Application.

Each investor must represent and warrant to the Fund that, among other things, he is able to acquire Participating Shares without violating applicable laws. The Fund will not knowingly, offer or sell Participating Shares to any investor to whom such offer or sale would be unlawful. In particular, Participating Shares may not be offered or sold to any person other than a Qualified Holder.

Any Redemption Notice received after the Redemption Dealing Deadline will be held over until the Redemption Day next following the relevant Redemption Day and Participating Shares will then be redeemed at the Redemption Price applicable to Participating Shares of the relevant Class on that day.

Redemption Notices must be in writing (and, if sent by facsimile or other written or electronic means specified by the Manager and the Administrator (or the Administrator’s Delegate), the original must follow promptly by mail unless an original fax indemnity was previously provided to the Manager), must state the number or value and where applicable the relevant Class of Participating Shares to be redeemed and give payment instructions for the redemption proceeds.

Investors should be reminded that if they choose to send Redemption Notices by facsimile or other written or electronic means specified by the Manager and the Administrator (or the Administrator's Delegate), they bear their own risk of such notices not being received. None of the Fund, the Manager, the Administrator or the Administrator's Delegate accepts any responsibility for any loss caused as a result of non-receipt or illegibility of any notice sent by facsimile or other written or electronic means specified by the Manager and the Administrator (or the Administrator's Delegate) or for any loss caused in respect of any action taken as a consequence of such instructions believed in good faith to have originated from properly authorised persons. In the event that a Redemption Notice is received to redeem Participating Shares of a Class which would result in the applicant holding less than Minimum Holding Amount of the relevant Class, the Manager may at its discretion deem such Redemption Notice to have been made in respect of all the Participating Shares of the relevant Class held by such applicant. Notwithstanding the aforesaid, the Manager has the discretion to waive the requirement for a minimum holding and/or minimum redemption amount of Participating Shares (in whole or in part), whether generally or in a particular case.

The price at which Participating Shares of a Class or Classes in relation thereto will be redeemed on any particular Redemption Day will be the Redemption Price in respect of the relevant Redemption Day calculated in the manner provided in the Articles and as described in the section below headed “Calculation of Net Asset Value - Calculation of Subscription Price and Redemption Price”.

Payment of Redemption Proceeds

Redemption proceeds will (unless payments are suspended as otherwise disclosed herein) generally be paid in the Class Currency of the relevant Class and will normally be paid within 5 Business Days of the relevant Redemption Day and in any event no later than 1 calendar month after the later of: (i) the Redemption Day on which the Participating Shares are redeemed; (ii) the day on which the Administrator's Delegate receives an original Redemption Notice, duly completed and signed by the redeeming Shareholder (or, in the case of joint Shareholders, each of them) and such other documents to the satisfaction of the Manager or the Administrator's Delegate; (iii) where the Redemption Notice provides for the redemption proceeds to be paid by telegraphic transfer, the signature of the Shareholder on such request and details of that bank account have been verified in such manner as the Manager or the Administrator's Delegate may from time to time determine; and (iv) the day on which the calculation of the Redemption Price for the relevant Redemption Day on which the Participating Shares are redeemed is finalised. With the prior consent of the Manager, arrangements can be made for redemption proceeds to be paid in any major currency other than the Class Currency of the relevant Class of Participating Shares being redeemed.

Redemption proceeds will normally be paid at the risk and expense of the redeeming Shareholder by telegraphic transfer to his pre-designated bank account as specified in the Redemption Notice. All bank and other administrative charges incurred in settling redemption proceeds to the redeeming Shareholders as well as the costs incurred in currency conversion, if any, will be borne by the redeeming Shareholders and deducted from the redemption proceeds. Where redemption proceeds are to be paid to a bank account other than that notified to the Administrator's Delegate at the time of subscription, the Administrator's Delegate may require the signature of the Shareholder on the relevant Redemption Notice to be independently verified to its satisfaction. No redemption proceeds will be paid to third parties.

If at any time during the period from the time as at which the Redemption Price is calculated and the time at which redemption proceeds are converted out of any other currency into the relevant Class Currency there is an officially announced devaluation or depreciation of that other currency, the amount payable to any relevant redeeming Shareholder may be reduced as the Directors consider appropriate to take account of the effect of that devaluation or depreciation.

VALUE PARTNERS GREATER CHINA HIGH YIELD INCOME FUND

(incorporated as an exempted open-ended investment company with limited liability in the Cayman Islands)

The maximum interval between the receipt of a Redemption Notice together with the relevant documents and the payment of the redemption proceeds to the Shareholder may not exceed one calendar month of the relevant Redemption Day unless the market(s) in which a substantial portion of the investments of the Fund is made is subject to legal or regulatory requirements (such as foreign exchange currency controls) thus rendering the payment of the redemption proceeds within the aforesaid time frame not practicable. In such case, the extended time frame for the payment of redemption proceeds shall reflect the additional time needed in light of the specific circumstances in the relevant market(s). In addition, in such case, proper records must be kept by the Manager to demonstrate and justify this (e.g. the Fund is directly subject to or adversely affected by the restrictions which are beyond the reasonable control of the Manager) and Shareholders and the SFC shall be properly and promptly informed. In any event, the redemption proceeds shall be paid to redeeming Shareholders as soon as possible after the receipt of the proceeds by the Fund.

Participating Shares shall be treated as having been redeemed with effect from the relevant Redemption Day irrespective of whether or not a Shareholder has been removed from the register of Shareholders or the Redemption Price has been determined or remitted. Accordingly on and from the relevant Redemption Day, Shareholders in their capacity as such will not be entitled to or be capable of exercising any rights arising under the Articles with respect to Participating Shares being redeemed (including any right to receive notice, attend or vote at any meeting of the Fund) save the right to receive the Redemption Price and any dividend which has been declared prior to the relevant Redemption Day but not yet paid (in each case with respect to the Participating Shares being redeemed). Such Shareholders will be treated as creditors of the Fund with respect to the Redemption Price and will rank accordingly in priority to the Fund's creditors.

(incorporated as an exempted open-ended investment company with limited liability in the Cayman Islands)

Restrictions on Redemptions

With a view to protecting the interests of Shareholders, the Fund's obligation to redeem Participating Shares is subject to postponement if requests are received in respect of any one Redemption Day for redemptions aggregating more than 10% of the total Net Asset Value of the Fund as at such Redemption Day ("Redemption Limit"). In that event, the limitation will apply pro rata so that every Shareholder wishing to redeem Participating Shares on that Redemption Day redeems the same proportion of the number of Participating Shares which each such Shareholder applied to be redeemed. Redemption requests in respect of all Participating Shares not redeemed but which would otherwise have been redeemed on that Redemption Day will be carried forward to the next Redemption Day (or such earlier day as the Directors may determine), whereupon all the Participating Shares the subject of such redemption requests will (subject to the same Redemption Limit) be redeemed. If redemption requests are carried forward, the Fund will inform the Shareholders who are affected and with respect to any subsequent redemption, priority will be given to requests which have been carried forward according to the length of time for which they have been carried forward.

The right of any Shareholder to require the redemption of Participating Shares will be suspended during any period when the determination of the Net Asset Value and/or the redemption of Participating Shares is suspended by the Fund. For details, please see the section below headed "Calculation of Net Asset Value - Suspension" which also contains details of circumstances in which payments due on redemption may be suspended. If Redemption Notices are received by the Administrator's Delegate during a period of suspension and not withdrawn, such Redemption Notices shall be treated as if it were received in time to be dealt with on the Redemption Day next following the end of the said suspension and dealt with accordingly.

Except during a period of suspension of the determination of the Net Asset Value and/or the redemption of Participating Shares, an applicant for Participating Shares shall not, without the approval of the Manager, be entitled to withdraw his Redemption Notice. Unless otherwise determined by the Manager, any withdrawal of a Redemption Notice shall be made in writing and shall only be effective if actually received by the Administrator's Delegate before termination of the said period of suspension. If the Redemption Notice is not so withdrawn the redemption of the relevant Participating Shares shall be made on the Redemption Day next following the end of the said suspension and dealt with accordingly.

Further, the Fund reserves the right to refuse and the Manager, the Administrator and the Administrator's Delegate reserve the right to refuse or to induce the Fund to refuse to make any redemption payment to a Shareholder if any of them suspects or is advised that the payment of any redemption proceeds to such Shareholder might result in a breach or violation of any applicable anti-money laundering or other laws or regulations by any person in any relevant jurisdiction, or such refusal based on the reasonable opinion of the Manager and the Administrator (and/or the Administrator's Delegate) acting in good faith is considered necessary or appropriate to ensure the compliance by the Fund, its Directors, the Manager, the Administrator and/or the Administrator's Delegate with any such laws or regulations in any relevant jurisdiction.

Redemption in Specie

Subject to the prior consent of the redeeming shareholder, the Directors may in their discretion from time to time effect a redemption payment to any or all redeeming Shareholders in specie or in kind (in whole or in part) rather than in cash having regard to the interests of the remaining Shareholders. The circumstances in which the Directors envisage exercising this discretion include, but are not limited to a situation where substantial redemption requests are received by the Fund which will make it impracticable or prejudicial to continuing Shareholders to redeem the Fund's investments in order to fund redemption payments; or when there is a devaluation of any foreign currency in which a material proportion of the Fund's investments are denominated during the period between the time as at which the Redemption Price is calculated and the time when redemption proceeds are to be converted out of such other currency into the relevant Class Currency.

In making redemption payments in specie or in kind, the relevant securities to be transferred or assigned or otherwise made available to the redeeming Shareholders as determined by the Directors shall be transferred at the same values in the relevant Class Currency attributed to them on the Redemption Day as at which the Redemption Price of the relevant Participating Shares to be redeemed was calculated. Any charges, levies or stamp duties incurred in transferring the securities to the redeeming Shareholders shall be for the account of such redeeming Shareholders.

If the Directors determine to distribute securities in kind, such securities may be distributed directly to the redeeming Shareholder. Such redemption proceeds in kind will be transferred to the redeeming Shareholder as soon as practical.

Compulsory Redemption

The Directors have the power to require the redemption or transfer of Participating Shares held by a person who is not a Qualified Holder or by any person in breach of any law or requirement of any country or governmental authority or by any person or persons in circumstances which, in the opinion of the Directors, might result in the Fund, any Shareholder or any Service Provider incurring any liability to taxation or suffering any other pecuniary, fiscal or regulatory disadvantage which the Fund, any Shareholder or any Service Provider might not otherwise have incurred or suffered or which might subject the Fund, any Shareholder or any Service Provider to regulation or a requirement to register or obtain any form of licence or approval in any jurisdiction (provided that in the case of the Service Providers, such disadvantage impacts the ability, willingness or the terms on which the Service Providers provide services to the Fund which may negatively impact the interests of existing Shareholders of the Fund). The Directors may give notice to such Shareholder requiring him to transfer his Participating Shares to a person who would not thereby be in contravention of any such restrictions as aforesaid or may redeem such Participating Shares in the manner provided for in the Articles.

The Directors also have power to compulsorily redeem a Shareholder's Participating Shares to settle any amount due from the Shareholder to the Fund or any service provider. The Directors may compulsorily redeem all outstanding Participating Shares if the Net Asset Value of the Fund falls below US$8,000,000 or such other amounts as the Directors may determine and notify to Shareholders from time to time. The Directors may also compulsorily redeem Participating Shares of a Shareholder in accordance with the Articles, provided that such compulsory redemption is effected by the Directors in good faith.

Conversion of Participating Shares

Shareholders have the right (subject always to the Manager's approval) to convert all or part of their Participating Shares ("Initial Class") into Participating Shares of another Class in the Fund ("Subsequent Class") by giving notice to the Administrator's Delegate ("Conversion Notice") in writing and sent by post, fax or other written or electronic forms specified by the Manager and the Administrator (or the Administrator's Delegate) on or before the Redemption Dealing Deadline of the Initial Class. In respect of any faxed or other written or electronic instructions, the duly signed original Conversion Notice must follow such instructions, unless an original fax indemnity was previously provided to the Manager. Any conversion request received after such Redemption Dealing Deadline will be held over and dealt with on the next Redemption Day in relation to the Initial Class. The provisions on redemption and subscription for the Initial Class and the Subsequent Class apply.

VALUE PARTNERS GREATER CHINA HIGH YIELD INCOME FUND

To effect a conversion, Participating Shares in the Initial Class will be redeemed at the prevailing Redemption Price per Participating Share of the relevant Class as at the relevant Redemption Day on which the Participating Shares are to be converted and Participating Shares in the Subsequent Class will be issued to the Shareholders at the applicable Subscription Price per Participating Share of the Subsequent Class in respect of the relevant Subscription Day.

The conversion shall be determined in accordance with the following formula:

$$N = \frac{E \times R \times F}{S + C}$$

Where:

N = the number of Participating Shares of the Subsequent Class to be allotted and issued;

E = the number of Participating Shares of the Initial Class to be converted pursuant to the Conversion Notice;

R = the Redemption Price per Participating Share of the Initial Class on the Redemption Day on which redemption is to take effect;

F = the currency conversion factor determined by the Manager as representing the effective rate of exchange between the currency of denomination of the Initial Class and the currency of denomination of the Subsequent Class;

S = the Subscription Price per Participating Share for the Subsequent Class on the Subscription Day of the Subsequent Class coincident with the Redemption Day of the Initial Class on which redemption is to take effect, or in the case that the Subscription Day of the Subsequent Class does not coincide with the Redemption Day of the Initial Class, then the Subscription Price per Participating Share for the Subsequent Class on the Subscription Day of the Subsequent Class next following the Redemption Day of the Initial Class on which redemption is to take effect; and

C = the conversion charge (if any).

VALUE PARTNERS GREATER CHINA HIGH YIELD INCOME FUND

(incorporated as an exempted open-ended investment company with limited liability in the Cayman Islands)

If the number of Participating Shares of the Subsequent Class so produced shall include any fraction of less than 1/1000th of a Participating Share of such Class (or such other fraction as the Manager otherwise determines generally or in any particular case), such fraction shall be ignored and any moneys arising from the redemption of the Participating Shares of the Initial Class and giving rise to such fraction shall be forfeited and retained as part of the Subsequent Class PROVIDED THAT if there is, at any time during the period from the time as at which that Redemption Price is calculated up to the time at which any necessary transfer of funds from the Initial Class to the Subsequent Class takes place, an officially announced devaluation of any currency in which any investment of the Initial Class is denominated or normally traded, that Redemption Price shall be reduced as the Manager considers appropriate to take account of the effect of that devaluation and the number of Participating Shares of the Subsequent Class to be allotted to that applicant pursuant to his Conversion Notice shall be recalculated in accordance with the formula set out above as if that reduced Redemption Price had been the Redemption Price on the relevant Redemption Day.

The Manager has the power to levy a conversion charge of up to 3% of the Subscription Price per Participating Share of the Subsequent Class as at the Valuation Point on the Valuation Day at which the Subscription Price of such Participating Shares is ascertained. The conversion charge, if any, shall be deducted from the amount reinvested into the Subsequent Class and shall be retained by or paid to the Manager for its own absolute use and benefit. The Manager has discretion to waive such conversion charges, if levied, in whole or in part, whether generally or in a particular case.

Partial conversions must not result in the balance holding of the applicant in the Initial Class being less than the Minimum Holding Amount of the Participating Shares of the Initial Class as may from time to time be specified (either generally or in any particular case or cases) by the Manager. If as a result of partial conversion, the applicant would hold Participating Shares in the Initial Class of less than the prescribed Minimum Holding Amount, the conversion request will be deemed to be in respect of the Applicant's entire holding in the Initial Class (unless the Manager otherwise determines generally or in any particular case). No conversion will be permitted if as a result of a conversion request, the Applicant will be issued Participating Shares in the Subsequent Class with an aggregate value of less than the Minimum Initial Subscription Amount (where you do not hold any Participating Shares in the Subsequent Class at the time of switching) or the Minimum Subsequent Subscription Amount (where you hold Participating Shares in the Subsequent Class at the time of switching) of the Subsequent Class.

Subject to the Manager's approval, Shareholders may convert Participating Shares held by them into shares, units or interests in other collective investment schemes managed by the Manager or its Connected Persons and which are authorised by the SFC. Conversion to such other collective investment schemes will be by way of redeeming the Participating Shares held by the relevant Shareholders in accordance with the redemption procedures set out in the section headed "Investing in the Fund - Redemption of Participating Shares" above and by re-investing the redemption proceeds thereof in such other collective investment schemes in accordance with the provisions of the relevant offering document(s) for such other collective investment schemes.

The conversion of Participating Shares may be suspended in certain circumstances (for details see the section below headed "Calculation of Net Asset Value - Suspension" which also contains details of circumstances in which subscriptions, conversions and/or redemptions and/or redemption payments, may be suspended). If Conversion Notices are received by the Administrator's Delegate during a period of suspension and not withdrawn, such Conversion Notices shall be treated as if it were received in time to be dealt with on the Redemption Day of the Initial Class next following the end of the said suspension and dealt with accordingly. Once completed Conversion Notices have been received by the Administrator's Delegate, they are irrevocable except in the event of suspension of the determination of the Net Asset Value and/or the conversion of Participating Shares or with the Manager's approval.

RISK FACTORS

General

An investment in the Participating Shares involves risks. Prospective investors should give careful consideration to the following factors, among others, in evaluating the merits and suitability of an investment in the Participating Shares. The value of Participating Shares may fall as well as rise and investors may not get back the amount originally invested. Accordingly, an investment in the Fund should only be made by persons who are able to bear the risk of loss of all the capital invested. The Fund will be responsible for paying its fees and expenses regardless of the level of its profitability.

The following specific risks should be carefully considered by prospective investors before investing in the Fund. Investors should not solely rely upon such information for investment in the Fund and should note that there may be various other considerations such as their own circumstances, financial position, investment objectives and risk tolerance level which may be relevant to them which may also need to be taken into account before making any decision to invest in the Fund.

Investment Risks

Investments of the Fund will be subject to market fluctuations and risks inherent in all investments and might also be affected by external factors such as global economic recession or the occurrence of any force majeure events which are beyond the control of the Manager and/or the Directors. There can be no assurance that the Fund will achieve its investment objective.

The Fund's investment portfolio may fall in value due to any of the key risk factors below and therefore your investment in the Fund may suffer losses. The income of the Fund and its Net Asset Value may be adversely affected. There is no guarantee of the repayment of principal.

Debt Securities Investment Risk

Investments in debt securities are subject to risks of an issuer's ability to meet principal and interest payments on the obligation (credit risk), and may also be subject to price volatility due to such factors as interest rate sensitivity, market perception of the creditworthiness of the issuer and general market liquidity.

VALUE PARTNERS GREATER CHINA HIGH YIELD INCOME FUND

(incorporated as an exempted open-ended investment company with limited liability in the Cayman Islands)

The volume of transactions effected in certain bond markets may be appreciably below that of the world's largest markets, such as the United States. Accordingly, the Fund's investment in such markets may be less liquid and their prices may be more volatile than comparable investments in debt securities trading in markets with larger trading volumes. Moreover, the settlement periods in certain markets may be longer than in others which may affect portfolio liquidity.

Debt Securities Issued by SPVs

The Fund may invest in debt securities issued by special purpose vehicles (SPVs) and such investments may subject the Fund to additional risks.

In certain cases, a company may establish an SPV to issue debt securities, rather than issuing the debt securities itself. SPVs are typically established for the sole purpose of issuing debt securities and, as such, have no or limited operation history. Typically, the parent company or associated company of the SPV will provide a guarantee in relation to the debt securities and/or the SPV will hold assets as collateral to meet its obligations under the debt securities. In case the SPV fails to meet its obligations, the guarantee will oblige the parent company or associated company to provide payment instead. It is the intention of the Manager that the Fund will only invest in debt securities issued by SPVs which are fully, unconditionally and irrevocably guaranteed by its parent company or associated company. In the Manager's assessment this guarantee feature is one of the best protections available to holders of debt securities issued by SPVs because such parent company or associated company will be of substance and is not a special purpose vehicle itself.

In making such investments, the Fund is exposed to the credit risk of both the SPV and the parent company or associated company (see "Credit Risk" below) and to risks relating to the enforceability of the parent company or associated company guarantee. The enforceability of a parent company or associated company guarantee and the availability of any judicial remedy will depend on, among other things, the governing law of the parent company or associated company guarantee and the laws and procedures of the place where any judicial remedy is sought. In particular, if court proceedings are instituted in a different jurisdiction from where the parent company is located, or where the parent company has substantial assets, the Fund may experience difficulties or delays in obtaining judicial remedies against the parent company or its assets. If the parent company or associated company guarantee is not enforceable or there are delays in enforcing the parent company or associated company guarantee, that may adversely affect the value of the Fund's investment in such debt securities.

VALUE PARTNERS GREATER CHINA HIGH YIELD INCOME FUND

(incorporated as an exempted open-ended investment company with limited liability in the Cayman Islands)

In addition, the parent company of the SPV may have other debt obligations. The parent company's default on one debt obligation may trigger defaults on other debt obligations (i.e. cross default provisions) so that all affected debt obligations would become immediately due and payable at the same time. The serious consequences of cross-default may affect the ability of the parent company or associated company to meet its obligations under the guarantee. This may adversely affect the value of the debt securities issued by the SPV and guaranteed by its parent company or associated company.

In certain markets where there are restrictions for borrowers to guarantee overseas borrowings, debt securities issued by overseas SPVs may become subordinated. The Fund may also invest in debt securities of a subordinated nature which are issued by SPVs. Such investments will have a lower priority of claim in the event of the relevant issuer's liquidation or bankruptcy as they rank behind holders of unsubordinated debt securities but before holders of equity securities. As a result, if the issuer becomes bankrupt, proceeds from the liquidation of the issuer's assets will be paid to holders of subordinated debt securities only after all claims by holders of unsubordinated debt securities have been satisfied in full. The Fund is therefore exposed to higher credit / insolvency risk of its counterparties as a holder of subordinated debt securities than as a holder of unsubordinated debt securities.

Equity Investment Risk

Investment in equity securities is subject to the risk that the market value of the stocks may go down as well as up due to numerous factors such as changes in investment sentiment, political environment, regional or global economic instability, currency and interest rate fluctuations. If the market value of the stocks go down the Net Asset Value of the Fund may be adversely affected.

Risks of Investing in Convertible Bonds

Convertible bonds are a hybrid between debt and equity, permitting holders to convert into shares in the company issuing the bond at a specified future date. As such, convertibles will be exposed to equity movement and greater volatility than straight bond investments. Investments in convertible bonds are subject to the same interest rate risk, credit risk, liquidity risk and prepayment risk associated with comparable straight bond investments.

VALUE PARTNERS GREATER CHINA HIGH YIELD INCOME FUND

(incorporated as an exempted open-ended investment company with limited liability in the Cayman Islands)

Risks relating to Investment in Contingent Convertible Bonds

Contingent convertible bonds are hybrid capital securities that absorb losses when the capital of the issuer falls below a certain level. Upon the occurrence of a predetermined event (known as a trigger event), contingent convertible bonds will be converted into shares of the issuing company (potentially at a discounted price as a result of the deterioration in the financial condition of the issuing company), or cause the permanent write-down to zero of the principal investment and/or accrued interest such that the principal amount invested may be lost on a permanent basis. In case of conversion, the Manager might be forced to sell these new equity shares and such forced sale may result in the Fund experiencing losses. Contingent convertible bonds are risky and highly complex instruments. Coupon payments on contingent convertible bonds are discretionary and may also be ceased or deferred by the issuer at any point, for any reason, and for any length of time. As a result, these instruments may be volatile and their price may decline rapidly in the event that coupon payments are suspended. Trigger events can vary but these could include the capital ratio of the issuing company falling below a certain level, or the share price of the issuer falling to a particular level for a certain period of time. In addition, these instruments are issued by banking and insurance institutions. The performance of the Fund may depend to a greater extent on the overall condition of the financial services industry than for funds following a more diversified strategy.

Risk associated with investment in instruments with loss-absorption features

The Fund may invest in instruments with loss-absorption features. Debt instruments with loss-absorption features are subject to greater risks when compared to traditional debt instruments as such instruments are typically subject to the risk of being written down or converted to ordinary shares upon the occurrence of certain pre-defined trigger events (e.g. when the issuer is near or at the point of non-viability or when the issuer's capital ratio falls to a specified level), which are likely to be outside of the issuer's control. Such trigger events are complex and difficult to predict and may result in a significant or total reduction in the value of such instruments.

In the event of the activation of a trigger, there may be potential price contagion and volatility to the entire asset class. Debt instruments with loss-absorption features may also be exposed to liquidity, valuation and sector concentration risk.

The Fund may invest in contingent convertible bonds issued by financial institutions, which are highly complex and are of high risk. Please refer to "Risks relating to investment in contingent convertible bonds" above for more information. The Fund may invest in senior non-preferred debts. While these instruments are generally senior to subordinated debts, they may be subject to write-down upon the occurrence of a trigger event and will no longer fall under the creditor ranking hierarchy of the issuer. This may result in total loss of principal invested.

VALUE PARTNERS GREATER CHINA HIGH YIELD INCOME FUND

(incorporated as an exempted open-ended investment company with limited liability in the Cayman Islands)

Credit Risk

The Fund is exposed to the credit or default risk of issuers of bonds or other debt securities that the Fund invests in. The issuers of such instruments may incur difficulties in making full and timely repayments of principal and interest, which may lead to a default and, ultimately, a fall in the value of the Fund. There is no guarantee that investors will receive the principal amount invested when they redeem their investment in the Fund.

Many emerging market countries have accumulated substantial debt service obligations. This may adversely affect their ability to service their debts and increase the likelihood of their defaulting on their obligations. It should also be noted that investment in securities issued by corporations may represent a higher credit risk than investment in securities issued by governments.

The value of the Fund may be affected if any of the financial institutions with which the cash of the Fund is invested or deposited suffers insolvency or other financial difficulties.

There is no certainty in the credit worthiness of issuers of debt securities. Unstable market conditions may mean there are increased instances of default amongst issuers. This may in turn affect the Net Asset Value per Participating Share.

Further, some of the debt securities are offered on an unsecured basis without collateral, and in such circumstance, the Fund will rank equally with other unsecured debts of the relevant issuer. As a result, if the issuer becomes bankrupt, proceeds from the liquidation of the issuer's assets will be paid to holders of the debt securities only after all secured claims have been satisfied in full. The Fund is therefore fully exposed to the credit/insolvency risk of its counterparties as an unsecured creditor.

Credit Ratings Risk

Investment in debt securities involve credit risk to the issuer which may be evidenced by the issuer's credit rating. Securities which are subordinated and/or have a lower credit rating are generally considered to have a higher credit risk and a greater possibility of default than more highly rated securities.

The ratings of fixed-income securities by Moody's and Standard & Poor's are a generally accepted barometer of credit risk. They are, however, subject to certain limitations from an investor's standpoint. The rating on an issuer is heavily weighted by past performance and does not necessarily reflect probable future conditions. There is frequently a lag between the time the rating is assigned and the time it is updated. In addition, there may be varying degrees of difference in credit risk of securities within each rating category.

VALUE PARTNERS GREATER CHINA HIGH YIELD INCOME FUND

(incorporated as an exempted open-ended investment company with limited liability in the Cayman Islands)

Credit Rating Downgrading Risk

The credit rating of a debt instrument or its issuer may subsequently be downgraded. Investment grade securities may be subject to the risk of being downgraded to below investment grade securities. Credit ratings assigned by rating agencies are subject to limitations and do not guarantee the creditworthiness of the securities and/or issuers at all times. In the event of such downgrading, the value of the Fund may be adversely affected. The Manager may or may not dispose of the securities that are being downgraded, subject to the investment objectives of the Fund. If the Fund continues to hold such securities, it will be subject to additional risk of loss. In the event of investment grade securities being downgraded to below investment grade securities, the Fund will also be subject to the below investment grade securities risk outlined in the following paragraph.

Sovereign Debt Risk

The Fund's investment in securities issued or guaranteed by governments may be exposed to political, social and economic risks. In adverse situations, the sovereign issuers may not be able or willing to repay the principal and/ or interest when due or may request the Fund to participate in restructuring such debts. The Fund may suffer significant losses when there is a default of sovereign debt issuers.

Unrated or Below Investment Grade and High Yielding Debt Securities Risk

The Fund may significantly invest in high yielding debt securities which (or the issuers of which) may be unrated or rated below investment grade. Such securities are generally subject to lower liquidity, higher volatility and greater risk of loss of principal and interest than high-rated debt securities. Investments in securities which (or the issuers of which) are unrated or below investment grade are considered to have a higher credit risk and greater possibility of default than securities which (or the issuers of which) are investment grade with respect to payment of interest and the return of principal. Unrated or lower rated debt securities generally offer a higher current yield than higher grade issues. However, unrated or lower rated debt securities involve higher risks and are more susceptible and sensitive to adverse changes in general economic conditions, changes in interest rates and in the industries in which the issuers are engaged, as well as to changes in the financial condition of the issuers. Valuation of these securities is more difficult and thus the Fund's prices may be more volatile. Additionally, the market for unrated or lower rated debt securities generally is less active than that for higher rated securities and the Fund's ability to liquidate its holdings in response to changes in the economy or the financial markets may be further limited by such factors as adverse publicity and investor perceptions. As a result, it may be more difficult for the Fund to sell such debt securities or the Fund may be able to sell such debt securities only at prices lower than if such debt securities were widely traded. The Fund will suffer losses if such debt securities have to be sold at prices which are substantially lower than the amount invested by the Fund.

VALUE PARTNERS GREATER CHINA HIGH YIELD INCOME FUND

(incorporated as an exempted open-ended investment company with limited liability in the Cayman Islands)

The value of lower-rated or unrated debt securities is also affected by investors' perceptions. When economic conditions appear to be deteriorating, lower rated or unrated debt securities may decline in market value more than investment grade debt securities due to investors' heightened concerns and perceptions over credit quality and increase in the default risk of such lower or unrated debt securities. As a result, the value of the Fund's investments may be adversely affected and investors may suffer substantial losses of their investments.

RMB Denominated Debt Securities Risk

The Fund may invest in RMB denominated debt securities and such investments may subject the Fund to additional risks.

Renminbi exchange risk

Starting from 2005, the exchange rate of the RMB is no longer pegged to the US dollar. The RMB has now moved to a managed floating exchange rate based on market supply and demand with reference to a basket of foreign currencies. The daily trading price of the RMB against other major currencies in the inter-bank foreign exchange market would be allowed to float within a narrow band around the central parity published by the People's Bank of China. As the exchange rates are based primarily on market forces, the exchange rates for RMB against other currencies, including US dollars and Hong Kong dollars, are susceptible to movements based on external factors.

It should be noted that the RMB is currently not a freely convertible currency as it is subject to foreign exchange control policies of the Chinese government. Such exchange controls and restrictions may affect the value of the RMB denominated debt securities which in turn will have adverse impact on the Net Asset Value of the Fund. Liquidity could deteriorate due to government controls and restrictions which, would affect investors' ability to exchange RMB into other currencies as well as the rates. Under exceptional circumstances, payment of redemptions and/or dividend payment in RMB may be delayed due to the exchange controls and restrictions applicable to RMB.

Non-RMB based investors are exposed to foreign exchange risk. The possibility that the appreciation of RMB will be accelerated cannot be excluded. On the other hand, there can be no assurance that the RMB will not be subject to devaluation. In particular, there is no guarantee that the value of RMB against the investors' base currencies will not depreciate. Any depreciation of the RMB could adversely affect the investors' investments in the Fund. The Fund's investments in RMB denominated debt securities (including investments in debt securities denominated in RMB but settled in other currencies) may be adversely affected if RMB depreciates against its base currency in that the Fund's investments may be worth less when they exchange RMB back to its base currency. This will adversely affect the Net Asset Value of the Fund.

Offshore RMB Market risk

The onshore RMB (“CNY”) is the only official currency of the PRC and is used in all financial transactions between individuals, states and corporations in the PRC (“Onshore RMB Market”). Hong Kong is the first jurisdiction to allow accumulation of RMB deposits outside the PRC (“Offshore RMB Market”). Since June 2010, the offshore RMB (“CNH”) is traded officially, regulated jointly by the Hong Kong Monetary Authority and the People’s Bank of China. As a result of the controls on cross-border transfers of Renminbi between Hong Kong and the PRC, the Onshore RMB Market and the Offshore RMB Market are, to an extent, segregated, and each market may be subject to different regulatory requirements that are applicable to the Renminbi. The CNY may therefore trade at a different foreign exchange rate compared to the CNH. Due to the strong demand for offshore RMB, CNH used to be traded at a premium to onshore RMB, although occasional discounts may also be observed. The Fund’s investments may potentially be exposed to both the CNY and the CNH, and the Fund may consequently be exposed to greater foreign exchange risks and/or higher costs of investment to the extent such investments use the CNH rate of exchange.

RMB Settled Debt Securities and Synthetic RMB Debt Securities risk

The Fund may invest in offshore debt securities which are denominated in RMB but settled in other currencies (“Synthetic RMB Debt Securities”) and offshore debt securities which are denominated and settled in RMB (“RMB Settled Debt Securities”). The former uses the official daily CNY fixing rate as published by the People’s Bank of China whereas the latter uses the CNH rate for the purposes of interest and principal payments. The CNH rate is generally more volatile than the CNY fixing rate. Although CNH and CNY are the same currency, they trade at different rates. The CNH rate may be at a premium or discount to the CNY rate and there may be a significant bid and offer spread. Any divergence between CNH and CNY may adversely impact investors.

The interest and principal payments on Synthetic RMB Debt Securities will normally be subject to the exchange rate between CNY and the foreign currency (“settlement currency”) in which the Synthetic RMB Debt Securities are settled. If the CNY appreciates against the settlement currency, the value of principal and interest payments denominated in the settlement currency will increase accordingly, meaning that the amount that the Fund will receive in such settlement currency would increase. On the other hand if the CNY depreciates against the settlement currency, the amount of the principal and interest that the Fund will receive in such settlement current would decrease accordingly.

“Dim Sum” bond (i.e. bonds issued outside of the PRC but denominated in RMB) market risk

The Fund intends to invest up to 30% of its latest Net Asset Value in the “Dim Sum” bonds. However, the quantity of “Dim Sum” bonds that are available to the Fund is currently limited, and the remaining duration of such instruments may be short. In the absence of available RMB instruments, or when such instruments held are at maturity, the Fund may not have exposure to RMB denominated debt securities as it intended.

The “Dim Sum” bond market is still a relatively small market which is more susceptible to volatility and illiquidity. The operation of the “Dim Sum” bond market as well as new issuances could be disrupted causing a fall in the Net Asset Value of the Fund should there be any promulgation of new rules which limit or restrict the ability of issuers to raise RMB by way of bond issuances and/or reversal or suspension of the liberalization of the CNH market by the relevant regulator(s).

Liquidity Risk associated with RMB denominated debt securities

Further, the RMB denominated debt securities market is at a developing stage and the market capitalisation and trading volume may be lower than those of the more developed markets. Market volatility and potential lack of liquidity due to low trading volume in the RMB denominated debt securities market may result in significant fluctuations in prices of debt securities traded on such markets and high bid-offer spreads which may affect the volatility of the Fund’s Net Asset Value.

Risk relating to Dividends paid out of Capital

To the extent that the net income generated by the Fund is insufficient to pay a distribution which is declared, the Manager may at its discretion determine such dividends may be paid from capital of the Fund. This would require the Manager to sell assets of the Fund to make such distributions as opposed to paying out net income received by the Fund.

In respect of the Distribution Classes, payment of dividends out of capital amounts to a return or withdrawal of part of an investor’s original investment or from any capital gains attributable to the original investment. Any such distributions may result in an immediate reduction of the Net Asset Value per Participating Share of the Fund.

The distribution amount and Net Asset Value of the hedged share classes may be adversely affected by differences in the interest rates of the reference currency of the hedged share classes and the Fund’s base currency (i.e. US dollars), resulting in an increase in the amount of distribution that is paid out of capital and hence a greater erosion of capital than other non-hedged classes.

VALUE PARTNERS GREATER CHINA HIGH YIELD INCOME FUND

(incorporated as an exempted open-ended investment company with limited liability in the Cayman Islands)

The Manager may amend this policy subject to the SFC's prior approval and by giving not less than one month's prior notice to investors.

Dividends and Distributions

The Manager currently intends to pay dividends on a monthly basis in respect of the Distribution Classes (as defined under the section "DISTRIBUTIONS" below). However, there is no guarantee that such dividends will be made nor will there be a target level of dividend payout. If there is a change to this policy, prior approval will be sought from the SFC and affected investors will receive at least one month's prior written notification. A high distribution yield does not imply a positive or high return.

The Manager currently does not intend to pay dividends in respect of the Accumulation Classes (as defined under the section "DISTRIBUTIONS" below). Accordingly, an investment in these Classes of Participating Shares may not be suitable for investors seeking income returns for financial or tax planning purposes.

Interest Rates Risk

Investment in the Fund is subject to interest rates risks. Changes in market interest rates will affect the value of debt securities held by the Fund. In general, the prices of debt securities rise when interest rates fall, whilst their prices fall when interest rates rise. The Fund's Net Asset Value generally moves in the same direction as the market value of the debt securities in the Fund's portfolio. Therefore, if interest rates rise, investors should expect the Fund's Net Asset Value to fall, and if interest rates fall, investors should expect the Fund's Net Asset Value to rise. Long-term debt securities are generally more sensitive to changes in interest rates and, therefore, are subject to a greater degree of market price volatility. To the extent the Fund holds long-term debt securities, its Net Asset Value will be subject to a greater degree of fluctuation than if it held debt securities of a shorter duration.

Market and Price Volatility

The Fund may be exposed to significant fluctuations in the prices of securities traded, and the value of the Participating Shares (or any class thereof) may be accordingly adversely affected. The risk also exists that an emergency situation may arise in the market or large price fluctuation may exist in the market as a result of which trading of securities may be temporarily suspended.

Counterparty Risk

The Manager may, on behalf of the Fund, enter into transaction(s) with one or more counterparties which may expose the Fund to the credit risk of the counterparties.

In the event of a bankruptcy or insolvency of the counterparties, the Fund could experience delays in liquidating the position and significant losses, including declines in the value of its investment during the period in which the Fund seeks to enforce its rights, inability to redeem any gains on its investment during such period and fees and expenses incurred in enforcing its rights.

The Manager intends that the counterparties with which it deals on behalf of the Fund must have reasonable financial soundness at the time of entering into the relevant transaction.

There is also a possibility that the above transactions will be terminated due, for instance, to bankruptcy, supervening illegality or change in the tax or accounting laws relative to those at the time the agreement was originated.

Deposits of securities or cash with a custodian, bank or financial institution (“custodian or depository”) will also carry counterparty risk as the custodian or depository may be unable to perform their obligations due to credit-related and other events like insolvency of or default by them. In these circumstances, the Fund may be required to unwind certain transactions and may encounter delays of some years and difficulties with respect to court procedures in seeking recovery of the Fund’s assets. In most cases, the Fund’s assets will be maintained by the custodian or depository in segregated accounts and would be protected in the event of the insolvency of the custodian or depository.

Emerging Markets Risk

The Fund may invest in or have exposure to debt securities of companies in Greater China which are generally considered as emerging markets. Such securities may involve a high degree of risk and may be considered speculative. Risks include (i) greater risk of expropriation, confiscatory taxation, nationalization, and social, political and economic stability; (ii) the small current size of the markets for securities of emerging markets issuers and the currently low or non-existent volume of trading, resulting in lack of liquidity and in price volatility, (iii) certain national policies which may restrict the Fund's investment opportunities including restrictions on investing in issuers or industries deemed sensitive to relevant national interests; (iv) the absence of developed legal structures governing private or foreign investment and private property; (v) the legal infrastructure and accounting, auditing and reporting standards in emerging markets may not provide the same degree of shareholder protection or information to investors as would generally apply internationally; (vi) potentially a greater risk regarding the ownership and custody of securities i.e. in certain countries, ownership is evidenced by entries in the books of a company or its registrar. In such instances, no certificates representing ownership of companies will be held by the Custodian or any of its local correspondents or in an effective central depository system. The Fund does not currently hold such investments but in the event that such investment is made, the Manager will take all reasonable actions to ensure that investments in such countries will be recorded or evidenced in accordance with the market practice in those countries; and (vii) emerging markets may experienced significant adverse economic developments, including substantial depreciation in currency exchange rates or unstable currency fluctuations, increased interest rates, or reduced economic growth rates than investments in securities of issuers based in developed countries.

The economies of emerging markets in which the Fund may invest may differ favourably or unfavourably from the economies of industrialised countries. The economies of developing countries are generally heavily dependant on international trade and have been and may continue to be adversely affected by trade barriers, exchange controls, managed adjustments in relative currency values and other protectionist measures imposed or negotiated by the countries with which they trade. In addition, the governments of certain emerging markets may impose limitations or restrictions on foreign ownership or holdings. In such circumstances, the Fund may be required to make investments in the relevant markets directly or indirectly. In either case, legal and regulatory restrictions or limitations may have an adverse effect on the liquidity and performance of such investments due to factors such as limitations on fund repatriation, dealing restrictions, adverse tax treatments, higher commission costs, regulatory reporting requirements and reliance on services of local custodians and service providers.

VALUE PARTNERS GREATER CHINA HIGH YIELD INCOME FUND

(incorporated as an exempted open-ended investment company with limited liability in the Cayman Islands)

Investments in or exposure to emerging markets entail(s) risks which include the possibility of political or social instability, adverse changes in investment or exchange control regulations, expropriation and withholding of dividends at source. In addition, such securities may trade with less frequency and volume than securities of companies and governments of developed, stable nations and there is also a possibility that redemption of shares/units following a redemption request may be delayed due to the illiquid nature of such investments.

China Market Risk

Investing in the China market is subject to the risks of investing in emerging markets generally and the risks specific to the China market. The Fund invests in the China market which may involve increased risks and special considerations not typically associated with investment in more developed markets, such as liquidity risks, currency risks/control, political and economic uncertainties, legal and taxation risks, settlement risks, custody risk and the likelihood of a high degree of volatility.

Since 1978, the Chinese government has implemented economic reform measures which emphasise decentralisation and the utilisation of market forces in the development of the Chinese economy, moving from the previous planned economy system. However, many of the economic measures are experimental or unprecedented and may be subject to adjustment and modification. Any significant change in mainland China's political, social or economic policies may have a negative impact on investments in the China market.

The regulatory and legal framework for capital markets and joint stock companies in mainland China may not be as well developed as those of developed countries. Chinese accounting standards and practices may deviate significantly from international accounting standards. The settlement and clearing systems of the Chinese securities markets may not be well tested and may be subject to increased risks of error or inefficiency.

The Chinese government's control of currency conversion and movements in RMB exchange rates may adversely affect the operations and financial results of companies in mainland China. Insofar as the Fund's assets are invested in mainland China, it will be subject to the risk of the mainland China government's imposition of restrictions on the repatriation of funds or other assets out of the country, limiting the ability of the Fund to satisfy payments to investors. In addition, the value of the Fund may be adversely affected in the event of RMB depreciation. Investors may lose money in such circumstances.

VALUE PARTNERS GREATER CHINA HIGH YIELD INCOME FUND

(incorporated as an exempted open-ended investment company with limited liability in the Cayman Islands)

Various tax reform policies have been implemented by the mainland China government in recent years, and existing tax laws and regulations may be revised or amended in the future. There is a possibility that the current tax laws, regulations and practice in mainland China will be changed with retrospective effect in the future and any such change may have an adverse effect on the asset value of the Fund. Moreover, there is no assurance that tax incentives currently offered to foreign companies, if any, will not be abolished and the existing tax laws and regulations will not be revised or amended in the future. Any changes in tax policies may reduce the after-tax profits of the companies in mainland China in which the Fund may invest, thereby reducing the income from, and/or value of the Participating Shares.

Investors should also be aware that changes in mainland China taxation legislation could affect the amount of income which may be derived, and the amount of capital returned, from the investments of the Fund. Laws governing taxation are likely to continue to change and may contain conflicts and ambiguities.

Taiwan Market Risks

The Fund invests in the Taiwan market which may involve increased risks and special considerations not typically associated with investment in more developed markets, such as liquidity risks, currency risks/control, political and economic uncertainties, legal and taxation risks, settlement risks, custody risk and the likelihood of a high degree of volatility.

The securities market of Taiwan is undergoing a period of growth and change which may lead to difficulties in the settlement and recording of transactions and in interpreting and applying the relevant regulations. To the extent that the assets of the Fund are invested in Taiwanese securities, the income of the Fund will be received in New Taiwan Dollars. There is a limited forward market in Taiwan for the purchase of US Dollars and the Fund expects to be limited in its ability to hedge against any declines in New Taiwan Dollars.

Accounting, auditing and financial reporting standards, practice and disclosure requirements applicable to Taiwanese companies are less rigorous than those in more developed countries. As a result, there may be less or less reliable information available publicly to investors in Taiwanese companies than to investors in comparable securities in more developed countries. There may be a lower level of government supervision and enforcement activity in the regulation of Taiwanese securities markets and the participants in those markets than in comparable markets in more developed countries.

VALUE PARTNERS GREATER CHINA HIGH YIELD INCOME FUND

(incorporated as an exempted open-ended investment company with limited liability in the Cayman Islands)

The Fund may be subject to controls on foreign investment, including those related to the level of foreign ownership, which may include the risk of expropriation, nationalisation and confiscation of assets, together with possible limitations on repatriation of invested capital. The value of the Fund's assets may be affected by uncertainties such as changes in the government in Taiwan or its policies regarding inward investment, taxation and the restrictions on currency repatriation and other developments in the laws and regulations of Taiwan. There may be more substantial government intervention in the economy, including restrictions on investing in companies or industries deemed sensitive to relevant national interests. Each of the governments in both Taiwan and the PRC claims to be the only legitimate government for the whole of China. There can be no guarantee that the PRC will not use forcible means, which it has indicated not to forego, to gain control of Taiwan. In addition the Fund's assets in Taiwan may be affected by other political or diplomatic uncertainty or developments, social instability, higher inflation and other considerations.

Change of Laws/regulations, Political and Economic Conditions

The performance of the Fund and its ability to pay redemption proceeds may be affected by changes in economic conditions and uncertainties such as change in political conditions including strikes and curfew and government policies, the imposition of restrictions on the transfer of capital and changes in laws or regulatory requirements.

General Economic Conditions

The success of any investment activity is affected by general economic conditions, which may affect the level of volatility of interest rates and the extent and timing of investor participation in the equity markets. Unexpected volatility or illiquidity in the markets to which the portfolio is exposed could impair the Fund's ability to carry out its business or cause the portfolio to incur losses.

Settlement Risks

The Fund will be exposed to a credit risk on parties with whom it trades and will also bear the risk of settlement default. Market practices in certain emerging markets in relation to the settlement of securities transactions and custody of assets may increase such risk. Although a number of emerging markets have grown rapidly over the last few years, the clearing, settlement and registration systems available to effect trades on such markets may be significantly less developed than those in more mature world markets which can result in delays and other material difficulties in settling trades and in registering transfers of securities. Problems of settlement in these markets may affect the value and liquidity of the Fund.

VALUE PARTNERS GREATER CHINA HIGH YIELD INCOME FUND

(incorporated as an exempted open-ended investment company with limited liability in the Cayman Islands)

Geographical Concentration Risk

The Fund's investments are concentrated in the Greater China region. The value of the Fund may be more volatile than that of a fund having a more diverse portfolio of investments, such as a global income fund. The value of the Fund may be more susceptible to adverse economic, political, policy, foreign exchange, liquidity, tax, legal or regulatory event affecting the Greater China region.

Foreign Exchange Risk

The Fund may issue Classes designated in a currency other than the Base Currency of the Fund. In addition, the underlying investments of the Fund may be denominated in a currency other than the Base Currency of the Fund or the relevant Class Currency. Accordingly, the Net Asset Value of the Fund may be affected unfavourably by fluctuations in the exchange rates between these currencies and the Base Currency and by changes in exchange rate controls.

The Fund may, in part, seek to offset the risks associated with such exposure through foreign exchange transactions. The markets in which foreign exchange transactions are effected are highly volatile, highly specialised and highly technical. Significant changes, including changes in liquidity and prices, can occur in such markets within very short periods of time, often within minutes. Foreign exchange trading risks include, but are not limited to, exchange rate risk, interest rate risk and potential interference by foreign governments through regulation of local exchange markets, foreign investment, or particular transactions in foreign currency.

Any changes in exchange control regulations may cause difficulties in the repatriation of funds. Dealings in the Fund may be suspended if the Fund is unable to repatriate funds for the purpose of making payments on the redemption of Participating Shares. For further details on suspension of dealings in the Fund, please refer to the section headed "Suspension" below.

Further, the Fund may also invest in RMB denominated debt securities. Please refer to the risk factor on "Renminbi exchange risk" above.

Risks relating to Currency Hedging and the Currency Hedged Classes

The Manager may (but is not obliged to) enter into certain currency related transactions in order to hedge the currency exposure of the assets of the Fund attributable to a particular Class into the Class Currency of the relevant Class. Any financial instruments used to implement such strategies with respect to one or more Classes shall be assets/liabilities of the Fund as a whole but will be attributable to the relevant Class(es) and the gains/losses on and the costs of the relevant financial instruments will accrue solely to the relevant Class. Where a Class of Shares is to be hedged (“Currency Hedged Class”) this will be disclosed in this Explanatory Memorandum. Any currency exposure of a Class may not be combined with, or offset against, that of any other Class of the Fund. The currency exposure of the assets attributable to a Class may not be allocated to other Classes.

Where the Manager seeks to hedge against currency fluctuations, while not intended, this could result in over-hedged or under-hedged positions due to external factors outside the control of the Manager. Investors in the Currency Hedged Classes may have exposure to currencies other than the currency of that Currency Hedged Class. Investors should also be aware that the hedging strategy may substantially limit the benefits of any potential increase in value of a Currency Hedged Class expressed in the Class Currency, if the Currency Hedged Class’ denominating currency falls against the Base Currency.

The Manager may also, at its absolute discretion, seek to fully or partially hedge currency exposures arising from some or all of the Fund’s underlying assets to the Base Currency. Investors whose base currency is different (or not in a currency linked to the Base Currency or the currency of that Currency Hedged Class) may be exposed to additional currency risk.

The precise hedging strategy applied to a particular Currency Hedged Class may vary. In addition, there is no guarantee that the desired hedging instruments will be available or hedging strategy will achieve its desired result. In such circumstances, investors of the Currency Hedged Class may still be subject to the currency exchange risk on an unhedged basis (which means that, for example, if the hedging strategy in respect of the Class A AUD Hedged MDIs Shares is ineffective, depending on the exchange rate movements of AUD relative to the Base Currency, and/or other currency(ies) of the non-AUD denominated underlying investment of the Fund, (i) investors may still suffer losses even if there are gains or no losses in the value of the non-AUD denominated underlying investments; or (ii) investors may suffer additional losses if the non-AUD denominated underlying investments of the Fund fall in value).

If the counterparties of the instruments used for hedging purposes default, investors of the Currency Hedged Classes may be exposed to the currency exchange risk on an unhedged basis and may therefore suffer further losses.

VALUE PARTNERS GREATER CHINA HIGH YIELD INCOME FUND

(incorporated as an exempted open-ended investment company with limited liability in the Cayman Islands)

The Fund currently offers different Currency Hedged Classes as disclosed in this Explanatory Memorandum which are primarily targeted for investors whose base currencies of investment are the currencies of the Currency Hedged Classes.

Each Currency Hedged Class may hedge the Fund's denominated currency back to its currency of denomination, with an aim to provide a return on investment which correlates with the return of the Class which is denominated in the Base Currency by reducing the effect of exchange rate fluctuations between the Base Currency and the Class Currency of the Currency Hedged Classes whilst taking into account practical considerations such as transaction costs. However, the return of the Currency Hedged Classes will never correlate perfectly to the Class which is denominated in the Base Currency due to various factors, including but not limited to short-term interest rate differentials, unrealized gains/losses on currency forward positions not being invested until the gains/losses are realised and transaction costs attributable to the hedging activity. Investors should also note that the distribution amount and/or rate of the Currency Hedged Classes may be more than or less than such amount and/or rate of the Class which is denominated in the Base Currency due to various factors, including but not limited to short-term interest rate differentials. Where the Currency Hedged Class is subject to a performance fee, it should be noted that any divergence in the performance of different Classes (for the reasons stated above), or different launch dates of different Classes, could result in any such performance fees becoming chargeable at different points in time, as different Classes reach their high watermark at different points in time. Accordingly the performance fee may adversely impact the correlation between different Classes.

Consequently, a Currency Hedged Class is not recommended for investors whose base currency of investment is not in the same currency of such Currency Hedged Class. Investors who choose to convert other currencies into such base currency to invest in such Currency Hedged Class should understand that they may be exposed to higher currency risks and may suffer a higher loss as a result of exchange rate fluctuations than an investor whose base currency of investment is in the same currency of the Currency Hedged Class.

To the extent that hedging is successful for a particular Currency Hedged Class, the performance of the Currency Hedged Class is likely to move in line with the performance of the underlying assets with the result that investors in that Currency Hedged Class will not gain if the Class Currency falls against the Base Currency.

VALUE PARTNERS GREATER CHINA HIGH YIELD INCOME FUND

(incorporated as an exempted open-ended investment company with limited liability in the Cayman Islands)

It is intended that the currency hedging strategy which will be employed will be based on the most up-to-date information in relation to the Net Asset Value of the Fund, and will also take into account future transactions relating to Shareholder activity that will be processed through each Class of Shares in the Fund as at the relevant valuation point. The currency hedging strategy will be monitored and adjusted in line with the valuation cycle at which investors are able to subscribe to and redeem from the Fund.

Futures, forwards, options and contracts for difference may be used to hedge against downward movements in the value of the Fund's portfolio, either by reference to specific securities or markets to which the Fund may be exposed.

Forward foreign exchange contracts are also used more specifically to hedge the value of certain Classes of Shares in the Fund against changes in the exchange rate between the Class Currency of the Class of Shares and the Base Currency.

Derivatives

Derivatives include instruments and contracts the value of which is related to one or more underlying securities, financial benchmarks or indices. Derivatives allow an investor to hedge or speculate upon the price movements of a particular security, financial benchmark or index at a fraction of the cost of investing in the underlying asset. The value of a derivative depends largely upon price movements in the underlying asset. Therefore, many of the risks applicable to trading the underlying asset are also applicable to derivatives trading. However, there are a number of other risks associated with derivatives trading, including counterparty/credit risk, liquidity risk, valuation risk, volatility risk and over-the counter transaction risk. Also, the leverage element/component of a derivative and adverse changes in the value or level of the underlying asset, rate or index can result in a loss significantly greater than the amount invested in the derivative itself. The prices of derivatives can be very volatile. The Fund's losses may be greater if it invests in such derivatives than if it invests only in conventional securities such as shares and debt securities. There can be no assurance that derivatives that the Fund wishes to acquire will be available at any particular times, on satisfactory terms or at all. Exposure to derivatives may lead to a high risk of significant loss by the Fund.

The Fund may enter into derivatives transactions (such as swaps and forwards) in over-the-counter markets that expose it to the credit risk of its counterparties and their ability to satisfy the terms of such contracts. If a counterparty to the derivatives transaction becomes insolvent or defaults on its obligations to perform under the relevant contract, the Fund may incur significant losses. There is also a possibility that ongoing derivative transactions may be terminated unexpectedly as a result of events outside the control of the Fund, for instance, bankruptcy, supervening illegality or a change in the tax or accounting laws relative to those transactions at the time the agreement was originated.

VALUE PARTNERS GREATER CHINA HIGH YIELD INCOME FUND

(incorporated as an exempted open-ended investment company with limited liability in the Cayman Islands)

Derivatives may not be listed and are subject to the terms and conditions imposed by their issuer. There is no active market in these derivatives and therefore such investments can be illiquid. In order to meet redemption requests, the Fund relies upon the issuer of the derivatives to quote a price to unwind any part of the derivatives that will reflect the market liquidity conditions and the size of the transaction. An investment in the derivatives does not entitle the derivatives holder to the beneficial interest in the shares nor to make any claim against the company issuing the underlying securities. There can be no assurance that the price of the derivatives will equal the underlying value of the company or securities market that it may seek to replicate.

The exposure of the Fund to derivatives is subject to the applicable investment restrictions set out in this Explanatory Memorandum.

Limitations of Hedging Techniques

The Fund may in certain cases employ various hedging techniques to reduce the risk of investment positions. A substantial risk remains, nonetheless, that such techniques will not always be available and when available, will not always be effective in limiting losses. In some circumstances, the Fund may take substantial unhedged positions.

Borrowing Risks

The Fund may borrow subject to the limit set out in Schedule 1 to the Explanatory Memorandum and the Articles for various reasons, such as facilitating redemptions or to acquire investments for the account of the Fund. Borrowing involves an increased degree of financial risk and may increase the exposure of the Fund to factors such as rising interest rates, downturns in the economy or deterioration in the conditions of the assets underlying its investments. There can be no assurance that the Fund will be able to borrow on favourable terms, or that the Fund's indebtedness will be accessible or be able to be refinanced by the Fund at any time.

Liquidity of Investment Portfolio

The debt securities in the Greater China region may be subject to higher volatility and lower liquidity compared to more developed markets. The prices of securities traded in such markets may be subject to fluctuations. The bid and offer spreads of the price of such securities may be large and the Fund may incur significant trading costs.

VALUE PARTNERS GREATER CHINA HIGH YIELD INCOME FUND

(incorporated as an exempted open-ended investment company with limited liability in the Cayman Islands)

It may not always be possible to execute a buy or sell order at the desired price or to liquidate an open position. Investment of the Fund's assets in illiquid securities may restrict the ability of the Fund to dispose of its investments at a price and time that it wishes to do so. The sale of these investments may be made at substantial discounts, delayed or impossible. This may be either due to market conditions or due to restrictions on the transferability of the securities held by the Fund, such as the minimum holding period that is applicable prior to the Fund's reselling a particular security. It is also possible that an exchange or governmental authority may suspend or restrict trading on an exchange or in particular securities or other instruments traded on the exchange. Illiquid securities may be difficult to value. The risk of illiquidity also arises in the case of over-the-counter transactions such as those contemplated for hedging purposes. There is no regulated market in such contracts, and the bid and offer prices will be established solely by dealers in these contracts.

The debt securities in which the Fund invests may not be listed on a stock exchange or a securities market where trading is conducted on a regular basis. Even if the debt securities are listed, the market for such securities may be inactive and the trading volume may be low. In the absence of an active secondary market, the Fund may need to hold the debt securities until their maturity date. If sizeable redemption requests are received, the Fund may need to liquidate its investments at a substantial discount in order to satisfy such requests and the Fund may suffer losses in trading such securities.

In addition, the Fund's investment in RMB denominated debt securities may be subject to additional liquidity risk. The RMB denominated debt securities market is at a developing stage and the market capitalisation and trading volume may be lower than those of the more developed markets. Market volatility and potential lack of liquidity due to low trading volume in the RMB denominated debt securities market may result in prices of debt securities traded on such markets fluctuating significantly and may affect the volatility of the Fund's Net Asset Value. Further, there is no guarantee that market making arrangements will be in place to make a market and quote a price for all RMB denominated debt securities. In the absence of an active secondary market, the Fund may need to hold the relevant RMB denominated debt securities until their maturity date. If sizeable redemption requests are received, the Fund may need to liquidate its investments at a substantial discount in order to satisfy such requests and the Fund may suffer losses in trading such instruments. Even if a secondary market exists for any RMB denominated debt securities, the price at which such instruments are traded on the secondary market may be higher or lower than the initial subscription price due to many factors including the prevailing interest rates.

Risks associated with Collateral Management and Re-investment of Cash Collateral

Where the Fund enters into an over-the-counter (“OTC”) derivative transaction, collateral may be received from or provided to the relevant counterparty. Notwithstanding that the Fund may only accept non-cash collateral which is highly liquid, the Fund is subject to the risk that it will be unable to liquidate collateral provided to it to cover a counterparty default. The Fund is also subject to the risk of loss resulting from inadequate or failed internal processes, people and systems or from external events.

The Fund may re-invest its cash collateral. Investors should note that there are risks associated with the re-investment of cash collateral. If the Fund reinvests cash collateral, such re-investment is subject to investment risks including the potential loss of principal.

Where collateral is provided by the Fund to the relevant counterparty, in the event of the insolvency of the counterparty, the Fund may become subject to the risk that it may not receive the return of its collateral or that the collateral may take some time to return if the collateral becomes available to the creditors of the relevant counterparty.

Cash collateral received by the Fund may be reinvested in order to generate additional income. In both circumstances, the Fund will be exposed to market risk in respect of any such investments and may incur a loss in reinvesting the financing charges and cash collateral it receives. Such a loss may arise due to a decline in the value of the investment made. A decline in the value of investment of the cash collateral would reduce the amount of collateral available to be returned by the Fund to the counterparty. The Fund would be required to cover the difference in value between the collateral originally received and the amount available to be returned to the counterparty, thereby resulting in a loss to the Fund.

China Tax Considerations

The tax laws, regulations and practice in the PRC are constantly changing, and they may be changed with retrospective effect. Any increased tax liabilities on the Fund may adversely affect the Fund’s value.

The Manager will assess the tax provisioning approach on an on-going basis. Should the PRC tax policies change, the Manager may decide to set aside a provision to meet any potential tax liability in the future.

For further details on the risks and effects of PRC taxation on the Fund, please refer to the section titled “PRC” under the heading “TAXATION AND REGULATORY REQUIREMENTS” in the Explanatory Memorandum.

Suspension of Trading on a Securities Exchange

A securities exchange typically has the right to suspend or limit trading in an instrument traded on that exchange. A suspension could render it impossible for the Manager to liquidate positions and thereby expose the Fund to losses.

Effect of Substantial Redemptions

Substantial redemptions by Shareholders within a short period of time could require the Fund to liquidate securities and other positions more rapidly than would otherwise be desirable, possibly reducing the value of its assets and/or disrupting its investment strategy. Further, it may be impossible to liquidate a sufficient amount of securities to meet redemptions because a significant part of the portfolio at any given time may be invested in securities for which the market is or has become illiquid. Reduction in the size of the Fund could make it more difficult to generate a positive return or to recoup losses due to, among other things, reductions in the Fund’s ability to take advantage of particular investment opportunities or decreases in the ratio of its income to its expenses.

Effect of Redemptions

Where a redemption request is accepted, the Participating Shares will be treated as having been redeemed with effect from the relevant Redemption Day irrespective of whether or not such redeeming Shareholder has been removed from the Fund’s register of Shareholders or the Redemption Price has been determined or remitted. Accordingly, on and from the relevant Redemption Day, Shareholders in their capacity as such will not be entitled to or be capable of exercising any rights arising under the Articles with respect to Participating Shares being redeemed (including any right to receive notice of, attend or vote at any meeting of the Fund) save the right to receive the Redemption Price and any dividend which has been declared prior to the relevant Redemption Day but not yet paid (in each case with respect to the Participating Shares being redeemed). Such redeemed Shareholders will be creditors of the Fund with respect to the Redemption Price. In an insolvent liquidation, redeemed Shareholders will rank behind ordinary creditors but ahead of Shareholders.

VALUE PARTNERS GREATER CHINA HIGH YIELD INCOME FUND

Subscription Monies

Where a subscription for Participating Shares is accepted, the Participating Shares will be treated as having been issued with effect from the relevant Subscription Day notwithstanding that the subscriber for those Participating Shares may not be entered in the Fund's register of Shareholders until after the relevant Subscription Day. The subscription monies paid by a subscriber for Participating Shares will accordingly be subject to investment risk in the Fund from the relevant Subscription Day.

Reliance on Management

Although the Directors have the ultimate authority and responsibility for the management of the Fund, all decisions relating to the day-to-day investment of the Fund's assets have been delegated to, and will be made by, the Manager. The Fund's performance is therefore largely dependent on the continuation of the agreements with the Manager, and the services and skills of their respective officers and employees. The loss of the Manager's services (or of one of their key personnel) could materially and negatively impact the value of the Fund.

Lack of Independent Representatives

The Manager has consulted with counsel, accountants and other experts regarding the formation of the Fund. Such personnel are accountable to the Fund only and not to the Shareholders themselves. Each prospective investor should consult his own legal, tax and financial advisers regarding the desirability of an investment in the Fund.

Past Performance Information

Market conditions and trading approaches are continually changing and the fact that any trading adviser or investment manager happened to be successful in the past may largely be irrelevant to its prospects for future profitability. PAST RESULTS ARE NOT NECESSARILY INDICATIVE OF FUTURE PERFORMANCE. NO ASSURANCE CAN BE GIVEN THAT PROFITS WILL BE ACHIEVED OR THAT SUBSTANTIAL LOSSES WILL NOT BE INCURRED.

Conflicts of Interest; Other Activities of the Manager

Various potential and actual conflicts of interest may arise from the overall investment activities of the Manager and its affiliates for their own accounts and the accounts of others. The Manager and its affiliates may invest for their own accounts and for the accounts of clients in various instruments that have interests different from or adverse to the instruments that are owned by the Fund. For more information, please refer to "Conflicts of Interest".

Involuntary Redemption Risk

The Directors have the power to require the redemption or transfer of Participating Shares held by any person in circumstances which might result in the Fund, any Shareholder or any Service Provider of the Fund incurring any liability to taxation or suffering any other pecuniary disadvantage which the Fund, any Shareholder or any Service Provider of the Fund might not otherwise have incurred or suffered (provided that in the case of Service Providers, such disadvantage impacts the ability, willingness or the terms on which such Service Providers provide services to the Fund which may negatively impact the interests of existing Shareholders of the Fund).

Cross-Class Liability

Multiple Classes of Participating Shares may be issued in relation to the Fund, with particular assets and liabilities of the Fund attributable to particular Classes. Where the liabilities of a particular Class exceed the assets pertaining to that Class, creditors pertaining to one Class may have recourse to the assets attributable to other Classes. Although for the purposes of internal accounting, a separate account will be established for each Class, in the event of an insolvency or termination of the Fund (i.e., when the assets of the Fund are insufficient to meet its liabilities), all assets will be used to meet the Fund's liabilities, not just the amount standing to the credit of any individual Class.

Auditor's Cap on Liability

PricewaterhouseCoopers (the "Auditors") has been retained as the independent auditors of the Fund and will file the Fund's financial reports with CIMA. The terms of engagement of the Auditors provide that, except where finally determined to have resulted from the wilful or intentional neglect or misconduct or fraudulent behaviour of the Auditors, the Auditors' maximum liability to the Fund for any reason relating to their services is limited to three times the fees paid by the Fund to the auditors for the services or work product giving rise to liability.

Broad Indemnification

The various agreements and other documents referenced herein contain various provisions limiting the liability of the Manager and other parties and provide broad indemnification. Various laws (including U.S. federal and state securities laws) may impose liabilities under certain circumstances on persons that cannot be waived by contract, other agreements or documents. Therefore, nothing in those agreements should be deemed, or be construed in a manner that purports, to waive or limit any right to the extent such waiver or limitation is prohibited by applicable law. For the avoidance of doubt, the Administrator, the Custodian, the Manager and the Directors cannot be exempted from any liability to Shareholders imposed under the laws of Hong Kong or the Cayman Islands or breaches of trust through fraud or negligence, nor may they be indemnified against such liability by Shareholders or at Shareholders' expense.

Valuation and Accounting

The recent market turmoil has demonstrated that it is possible that there may be no liquidity, or no bid or offer prices, or no reliable bid or offer prices quoted for debt securities of the type in which the Fund may invest. Unexpected volatility or illiquidity could impair the Fund's profitability or result in losses.

Valuation of the Fund's investments may involve uncertainties and judgmental determinations. If such valuation turns out to be incorrect, this may affect the Net Asset Value calculation of the Fund.

It may be difficult to determine the appropriate valuation of such investments under such conditions. Notwithstanding the Directors will determine the Net Asset Value according to the Articles, the Manager may also give advice to the Directors in determining the Net Asset Value. While the management fee payable to the Manager is dependent on the Net Asset Value of the Participating Shares, conflicts of interest will occur. The Manager will endeavour to resolve the conflicts fairly.

Furthermore, under current market conditions, it may often be the case that the bid-offer spread for debt instruments invested in by the Fund will be very wide, although such spread may be expected to narrow over time. One consequence of this is that, to the extent the Fund values its portfolio by reference to bid prices, it will incur an immediate diminution in the Net Asset Value of the Fund on the purchase of such debt instruments.

VALUE PARTNERS GREATER CHINA HIGH YIELD INCOME FUND

(incorporated as an exempted open-ended investment company with limited liability in the Cayman Islands)

The Fund adopts the IFRS in drawing up the annual reports of the Fund, and interim reports will apply the same accounting policies and method of computation as are applied in the annual reports of the Fund. However, investors should note that the calculation of the Net Asset Value in the manner described below in the section headed “Calculation of Net Asset Value” (which the Fund intends to adopt for the purpose of determining Subscription Prices and Redemption Prices and for the purpose of the calculation of various fees as described in this Explanatory Memorandum) may not necessarily be in compliance with the IFRS. Accordingly, investors should note that the Net Asset Value as described in this Explanatory Memorandum may not necessarily be the same as the net asset value to be reported in the annual reports as the Directors may make necessary adjustments in the annual reports to comply with IFRS.

Early Termination Risk

Although investment in the Fund should be regarded as medium to long term in nature, investment in the Fund is also subject to the risk of early termination of the Fund by a special resolution of the holders of the Participating Shares, or by compulsory redemption of all outstanding Participating Shares by the Directors if the Net Asset Value of the Fund falls below US$8,000,000 or such other amounts as the Directors may determine and notify to Shareholders from time to time (see the section below headed “General Information – Articles of Association – Termination”). In the event of the early termination of the Fund, the Fund would have to distribute to the Shareholders their pro rata interest in the assets of the Fund. It is possible that at the time of sale or distribution, certain investments held by the Fund may be worth less than the initial cost of such investments, resulting in a substantial loss to the Shareholders. Moreover, any organisational expenses with regard to the Fund that had not yet become fully amortised would be debited against the Fund’s capital at that time.

Risk of Fraud

Although the Fund intends to employ reasonable diligence in evaluating portfolio securities, no amount of diligence can eliminate the possibility that one or more issuers of such portfolio securities may engage in improper or fraudulent conduct, including improper accounting practices and unsupported valuations of assets.

VALUE PARTNERS GREATER CHINA HIGH YIELD INCOME FUND

(incorporated as an exempted open-ended investment company with limited liability in the Cayman Islands)

Custody Risk

Custodians or sub-custodians may be appointed in local markets for purpose of safekeeping assets in those markets. Where the Fund invests in markets where custodial and/or settlement systems are not fully developed, the assets of the Fund may be exposed to custodial risk. In case of liquidation, bankruptcy or insolvency of a custodian or sub-custodian, the Fund may take a longer time to recover its assets. In extreme circumstances such as the retroactive application of legislation and fraud or improper registration of title, the Fund may even be unable to recover all of its assets. The costs borne by the Fund in investing and holding investments in such markets will be generally higher than in organised securities markets.

Liquidity Risk

Liquidity risk exists if sizeable redemption requests are received as the Fund may need to liquidate its investments at a substantial discount in order to satisfy such requests and the Fund may suffer losses in trading such investments.

Foreign Account Tax Compliance Act

Under Sections 1471 – 1474 of the IRS Code (referred to as “FATCA”), unless a “foreign financial institution” as defined in the IRS Code and U.S. Treasury Regulations, timely agrees to collect and disclose to the U.S. Treasury certain information with respect to its investors and its investors’ investments, or collects and discloses such information to a foreign government pursuant to an applicable intergovernmental agreement between the U.S. and that foreign government, and meets certain other conditions, certain payments to that foreign financial institution of dividends, interest, and certain other categories of investment income from sources within the U.S. will generally, assuming certain other conditions are met, be subject to a 30% U.S. federal withholding tax. While such withholding would have applied also to payments of gross proceeds from the sale or other disposition on or after 1 January 2019 of property of a type which can produce U.S. source dividends and interest, recently proposed U.S. Treasury regulations eliminate such withholding on payments of gross proceeds entirely. Taxpayers generally may rely on these proposed U.S. Treasury regulations until final U.S. Treasury regulations are issued.

Pursuant to the US IGA, the Fund will generally be relieved from FATCA withholding tax on payments it receives, as well as the obligation to withhold tax on payments made to its investors, provided that it complies with the AEOI Regulations (discussed below), which give effect to the US IGA. Pursuant to the AEOI Regulations reporting is made annually in respect of the previous calendar year.

VALUE PARTNERS GREATER CHINA HIGH YIELD INCOME FUND

(incorporated as an exempted open-ended investment company with limited liability in the Cayman Islands)

The Fund will endeavour to satisfy the requirements imposed under FATCA and the US IGA and the AEOI Regulations to avoid any withholding tax. In particular, the Fund has been registered with the IRS with Global Intermediary Identification Number BIW3LB.99999.SL.136. In the event that the Fund is not able to comply with the requirements imposed by FATCA, the US IGA or related Cayman Islands law, and the Fund suffers US withholding tax on its investments as a result of non-compliance, the Net Asset Value of the Fund may be adversely affected and the Fund may suffer significant losses as a result. In addition, prospective investors should note that underlying collective investment schemes in which the Fund invests may be required to satisfy their own FATCA compliance obligations, and failure by any underlying collective investment scheme to fully comply with its FATCA obligations may have an adverse impact on the Net Asset Value of the Fund.

To the extent that the Fund suffers withholding tax on its investments as a result of FATCA, the Fund may, after completing due process to ascertain and confirm that a Shareholder has failed to cooperate and provide the required information, bring legal action against such Shareholder for losses suffered by the Fund as a result of such withholding tax.

Each Shareholder and prospective investor should consult with his/her own tax adviser as to the potential impact of FATCA in his/her own tax situation.

Modification of Rights

The Articles provide that, subject to the Companies Law, all or any of the special rights for the time being attached to any Class of Shares for the time being issued (unless otherwise provided by the terms of issue of the Shares of that Class) may from time to time (whether or not the Fund is being wound up) be altered or abrogated with the consent in writing of the holders of not less than two-thirds of the issued Shares of that Class or with the sanction of a resolution passed with a two-thirds majority at a separate meeting of the holders of such Shares on the register of Shareholders at the date on which notice of such separate meeting is given. To any such separate meeting all the provisions of the Articles as to general meetings of the Fund shall mutatis mutandis apply, but so that any holder of Shares of the Class present in person or by proxy may demand a poll. For such purposes the Directors may treat all the Classes of Shares as forming one Class if the Directors consider that all such Classes would be affected in the same way by the proposals under consideration but in any other case shall treat them as separate Classes.

Other Risks

The Fund must comply with various legal requirements, including securities laws and tax laws as imposed by the jurisdictions under which it operates. Should any of those laws change over the life of the Fund, the legal requirements to which the Fund and its Shareholders may be subject to could differ materially from current requirements. Accordingly, changes in laws or regulations, or a failure to comply with any laws and regulations, may adversely affect the Manager's business, investments and results of operations and those of the Fund.

CALCULATION OF NET ASSET VALUE

Calculation of Net Asset Value

The Administrator is responsible for calculating the Net Asset Value of the Fund.

The Net Asset Value of the Fund will be calculated by valuing the assets of the Fund and deducting the liabilities (including all outgoing and accounts payable, fees, charges and expenses) of the Fund in accordance with the terms of the Articles.

The value of the assets of the Fund will be determined by the Manager, in consultation with the Custodian, as at the Valuation Point on each Valuation Day in accordance with the Articles, which in substance, provide (inter alia) that:-

- (a) investments (other than a commodity, futures contract or an interest in an unlisted collective investment scheme) that are quoted, listed, traded or dealt in on any securities market will be valued by reference to the price appearing to the Manager to be the last traded price or “exchange close” price as calculated and published by the relevant exchange of that market in accordance with its local rules and customs, provided that:
 - (i) if an investment is quoted, listed, traded or dealt in on more than one such market, the price adopted shall be the last traded price or the exchange close price as published by the market in accordance with its local rules and customs which, in the opinion of the Manager, provides the principal market for such investment, provided that if the Manager considers that the prices published on a securities market other than the principal market for such investment provides, in all circumstances, a fairer criterion of value in relation to any such investment, such prices may be adopted; (ii) if prices on such market are not available at the relevant time, the value of the investment shall be certified by such firm or institution making a market in such investment or, if the Custodian so requires, by the Manager after consultation with the Custodian; (iii) interest accrued on any interest-bearing investments shall be taken into account up to (and including) the date as at which the valuation is made, unless such interest is included in the quoted or listed price; and (iv) the Administrator and the Manager shall be entitled to use and rely on electronically transmitted data from such source or sources or pricing systems as they may from time to time think fit with regard to the valuation of investments and the prices provided by any such source or pricing system shall be deemed to be the last traded prices for the purposes of valuation;

VALUE PARTNERS GREATER CHINA HIGH YIELD INCOME FUND

(incorporated as an exempted open-ended investment company with limited liability in the Cayman Islands)

- (b) the value of any investment (other than a commodity, futures contract or an interest in a collective investment scheme) which is not quoted, listed, traded or ordinarily dealt in on any securities market shall initially be the value equal to the amount expended on behalf of the Fund in the acquisition of such investment (including, in each case the amount of stamp duties, commissions and other acquisition expenses), and thereafter the value as assessed by the Administrator on the latest revaluation thereof, provided that a revaluation shall be made on each Valuation Day by reference to the latest bid price, asked price or mean thereof, as the Administrator and the Manager consider appropriate, quoted by a person, firm or institution making a market in such investments or otherwise approved by the Custodian as qualified to value such investments (which may, if the Custodian agrees, be the Manager);
- (c) cash, deposits and similar investments shall be valued at their face value (together with accrued interest) unless, in the opinion of the Manager in consultation with the Custodian, any adjustment should be made to reflect the value thereof;
- (d) the value of any commodity or futures contract shall be ascertained in such manner as the Manager, in consultation with the Custodian, shall think fit, but so that:
 - (i) if a commodity or futures contract is dealt in any recognised commodities market, then regard shall be had to the latest ascertainable price ruling or officially fixed on such recognised commodities market or (if there shall be more than one such recognised commodities market) on such recognised commodities market as the Manager, in consultation with the Custodian, shall consider appropriate;
 - (ii) if any such price as referred to in (i) is not, in the opinion of the Manager, reasonably up-to-date or is not ascertainable at any relevant time, then regard shall be had to any certificate as to the value of such commodity or futures contract provided by a firm or institution making a market in such commodity or futures contract;

VALUE PARTNERS GREATER CHINA HIGH YIELD INCOME FUND

(incorporated as an exempted open-ended investment company with limited liability in the Cayman Islands)

- (iii) the value of any futures contract (the “relevant Contract”), to the extent that it is not determined in accordance with (i) or (ii), shall be valued (1) where the relevant Contract is for the sale of a commodity, by subtracting, from the contract value of the relevant Contract, the sum of the amount determined by the Manager (based on the latest available price) to be the contract value of such futures contract as would be required to be entered into by the Manager for the account of the Fund in order to close the relevant Contract and the amount expended out of the Fund in entering into the relevant Contract (including the amount of all stamp duties, commissions and other expenses but excluding any deposit or margin provided in connection therewith); and (2) where the relevant Contract is for the purchase of a commodity, by subtracting, from the amount determined by the Manager (based on the latest available price) to be the contract value of such futures contract as would be required to be entered into by the Manager for the account of the Fund in order to close the relevant Contract, the sum of the contract value of the relevant Contract and the amount expended out of the Fund in entering into the relevant Contract (including the amount of all stamp duties, commissions and other expenses but excluding any deposit or margin provided in connection therewith); and
- (iv) if the provisions of (i) and (ii) do not apply to the relevant commodity or futures contract, then the value shall be determined in accordance with (b) above as if such commodity or futures contract were an unquoted investment;
- (e) the value of each unit, share or interest in any collective investment scheme (other than an interest in a listed collective investment scheme) which is valued as at the same day as the Fund shall be the net asset value per unit, share or other interest in such collective investment scheme calculated as at that day or, if the Manager so determines, if such collective investment scheme is not valued as at the same day as the Fund, shall be the last published net asset value per unit, share or other interest in such collective investment scheme, provided that if no net asset value is available, the value thereof shall be determined from time to time in such manner as the Manager shall determine in consultation with the Custodian;
- (f) notwithstanding paragraphs (a) to (e) above, the Manager may, in consultation with the Custodian, adjust the value of any investment or permit some other method of valuation to be used if, having regard to relevant circumstances, the Manager considers that such adjustment is required to reflect the fair value of the investment; and

(incorporated as an exempted open-ended investment company with limited liability in the Cayman Islands)

- (g) the value of any investment (whether of a borrowing or other liability or an investment or cash) in a currency other than the Base Currency of the Fund or the Class Currency of the relevant Class will be converted into the Base Currency or the Class Currency of such Class (as the case may be) at the rate (whether official or otherwise) which the Manager shall deem appropriate in the circumstances having regard to any premium or discount which may be relevant and to costs of exchange.

The Fund will prepare its annual reports in accordance with IFRS. To the extent that the valuation basis adopted by the Fund deviates from IFRS, the Directors will make necessary adjustments in the annual reports for compliance with IFRS.

In calculating the Net Asset Value of the Fund or any Class of Participating Shares, the Administrator may rely upon, and will not be responsible for the accuracy of, financial data furnished to it by third parties including automatic processing services, brokers, market makers or intermediaries, the Manager, and any administrator or valuations agent of other collective investments into which the Fund invests. If and to the extent that the Manager is responsible for or otherwise involved in the pricing of any of the Fund's assets, the Administrator may accept, use and rely on such prices, without verification, in determining the Net Asset Value of the Fund and shall not be liable to the Fund, any Shareholder or any other person in doing so.

Suspension

The Articles provide that the Directors may, after consultation with the Custodian, having regard to the best interests of Shareholders, declare a suspension of the determination of the Net Asset Value of the Fund, the allotment or issue of Participating Shares, conversion and/or the redemption of Participating Shares (which for the avoidance of doubt, includes the payment of redemption moneys) by the number of days comprised in, the whole or any part of a period:-

- (a) during which any stock exchange, commodities exchange or futures exchange or over-the-counter market on which any significant portion of the investments of the Fund is listed, quoted, traded or dealt in is closed (other than customary weekend and holiday closing) or trading on any such exchange or market is restricted or suspended; or
- (b) when circumstances exist as a result of which in the opinion of the Directors it is not reasonably practicable for the Fund to dispose of investments or as a result of which any such disposal would be materially prejudicial to Shareholders; or

(incorporated as an exempted open-ended investment company with limited liability in the Cayman Islands)

- (c) when a breakdown occurs in any of the means normally employed in ascertaining the value of a substantial part of investments or the Net Asset Value or the Subscription Price or Redemption Price per Participating Share of any Class or when for any other reason the value of a substantial part of the investments or other assets of the Fund or the Net Asset Value or the Subscription Price or the Redemption Price per Participating Share of any Class cannot in the opinion of the Directors reasonably or fairly be ascertained; or
- (d) during which the Fund is unable to repatriate funds for the purpose of making payments on the redemption of Participating Shares or during which any transfer of funds involved in the realisation or acquisition of the Fund's investments or payments due on redemption of Participating Shares cannot in the opinion of the Directors be effected at normal rates of exchange; or
- (e) during which the business operations of the Manager, the Administrator or their respective delegates (including the Administrator's Delegate) in respect of the Fund are substantially interrupted or closed as a result of or arising from pestilence, acts of war, terrorism, insurrection, revolution, civil unrest, riot, strikes, or acts of God; or
- (f) when in the opinion of the Directors such suspension, delay or extension is required by law or applicable legal process; or
- (g) where a significant portion of the assets of the Fund is invested in one or more managed funds, and the redemption of interests in a relevant managed fund is suspended or restricted.
- (h) when such other circumstances exist as a result of which in the opinion of the Directors it would be in the best interests of the holders of Participating Shares to invoke a suspension under the Articles.

VALUE PARTNERS GREATER CHINA HIGH YIELD INCOME FUND

(incorporated as an exempted open-ended investment company with limited liability in the Cayman Islands)

If the Directors declare a suspension in any of the circumstances set out above, during such a period of suspension –

- (A) where the suspension is in respect of the determination of the Net Asset Value, there shall be no determination of the Net Asset Value (although an estimated Net Asset Value may be calculated and published) and any applicable issue or request for conversion or redemption of Participating Shares shall be similarly suspended. If a request for subscription, conversion or redemption of Participating Shares are received by the Administrator's Delegate during a period of suspension and not withdrawn, such request shall be treated as if it were received in time to be dealt with on the Subscription Day or the Redemption Day, as the case may be, next following the end of the said suspension and dealt with accordingly;
- (B) where the suspension is in respect of the allotment or issue, conversion and/or the redemption of Participating Shares, there shall be no allotment, issue, conversion and/or redemption of Participating Shares. For the avoidance of doubt, the allotment, issue, conversion or redemption of Participating Shares may be suspended without suspending the determination of the Net Asset Value.

Whenever the Directors declare such suspension, a notice shall be posted on the Manager's website www.valuepartners-group.com as soon as practicable thereafter and at least once a month during the period of such suspension. Investors should note that the aforesaid website has not been reviewed or authorised by the SFC. In addition, the Manager must immediately notify the SFC if a declaration of a suspension is made.

Calculation of Subscription Price and Redemption Price

The Net Asset Value of each Class of Participating Shares as at any Valuation Point shall be calculated by:

- (A) allocating among each Class the Net Asset Value of the Fund pro rata in accordance with the Net Asset Value of each Class prior to the relevant Valuation Point;
- (B) deducting from the Net Asset Value of the Class in question the fees, costs, expenses or other liabilities attributable to that Class not already deducted in ascertaining the Net Asset Value of the Fund and adding to the Net Asset Value, assets specifically attributable to that Class in order to arrive at the Net Asset Value of that relevant Class.

VALUE PARTNERS GREATER CHINA HIGH YIELD INCOME FUND

(incorporated as an exempted open-ended investment company with limited liability in the Cayman Islands)

The Subscription Price or Redemption Price of each Participating Share of a particular Class for any relevant Subscription Day or Redemption Day, as the case may be, will, subject as provided below, be determined by dividing the Net Asset Value of such Class as at the Valuation Point relating to that Subscription Day or Redemption Day by the number of Participating Shares of the relevant Class then in issue, the resulting amount being rounded to the nearest cent (0.5 of a cent being rounded up).

The Directors have the power, in determining the Subscription Price of a Participating Share, to add to the Net Asset Value per Participating Share of the relevant Class (before making any rounding adjustment) an amount, for the account of the Fund which they consider to be an appropriate allowance to reflect (a) the difference between the last traded price (or the mean between the last available bid and asked prices) of the investments of the Fund and the latest available asked price of such investments, (b) all stamp and other duties, taxes, governmental charges, brokerage, bank charges, transfer fees and registration fees which would be incurred for the account of the Fund in investing an amount equal to that Net Asset Value per Participating Share of the relevant Class.

Similarly, the Directors may, when determining the Redemption Price of a Participating Share, deduct for the account of the Fund from the Net Asset Value per Participating Share of the relevant Class (before making any rounding adjustment) an amount which they consider to be an appropriate allowance to reflect (a) the difference between the last traded price (or the mean between the last available bid and asked prices) of the investments of the Fund and the latest available bid price of such investments, and (b) all stamp and other duties, taxes, governmental charges, brokerage, bank charges, transfer fees and registration fees which would be incurred for the account of the Fund in realising assets or closing out positions to provide funds to meet any redemption request.

VALUE PARTNERS GREATER CHINA HIGH YIELD INCOME FUND

(incorporated as an exempted open-ended investment company with limited liability in the Cayman Islands)

The Directors will only adjust the Subscription Price and the Redemption Price with a view to protecting the interests of Shareholders under exceptional circumstances as determined by the Directors from time to time. Where necessary the Directors will consult the Custodian prior to any adjustment in the Subscription Price or Redemption Price and such adjustment would only be made where the Custodian has no objection to it. Examples of such exceptional circumstances for adjusting the Subscription Price or Redemption Price may include (a) the aggregate net transactions (either net subscriptions or net redemptions) in Participating Shares having exceeded a pre-determined threshold set by the Directors from time to time; and/or (b) extreme market conditions which may have an unfavourable impact on the interests of existing Shareholders. In such circumstances, the Net Asset Value per Participating Share of the relevant Class may be adjusted by an amount (normally not exceeding 3% of that Net Asset Value) which reflects the dealing costs that may be incurred by the Fund and the estimated bid/offer spread of the assets in which the Fund invests. Under extreme market conditions (such as market crash or global financial crisis), the Directors may increase such amount to protect interests of the Shareholders. Any such additional amount will be retained by the Fund and will form part of the assets of the Fund.

For the avoidance of doubt,

- (a) the Subscription Price and Redemption Price, prior to any adjustment, will be determined with reference to the same Net Asset Value per Participating Share of the relevant Class; and
- (b) it is not the intention of the Directors to adjust the Subscription Price upwards and the Redemption Price downwards for the same Subscription Day or Redemption Day (as applicable); and
- (c) any adjustment in the Subscription Price or Redemption Price must be made on a fair and equitable basis.

Further, the Directors may arrange for a revaluation of Participating Shares if they consider that the Subscription Price or Redemption Price calculated in relation to any Subscription Day or Redemption Day, as the case may be, does not accurately reflect the fair and true value of the Participating Shares of the relevant class. Any revaluation must be made on a fair and equitable basis. The Directors will consult the Custodian prior to any revaluation of Participating Shares and such revaluation would only be made where the Custodian has no objection to it.

DISTRIBUTIONS

The Fund offers Classes of Participating Share that accumulate income or pay regular dividends out of net current income or on occasion make payments out of capital.

Accumulation Classes

Distribution Classes

VALUE PARTNERS GREATER CHINA HIGH YIELD INCOME FUND

(incorporated as an exempted open-ended investment company with limited liability in the Cayman Islands)

For Shareholders of Distribution Classes who receive dividends in cash, payment will normally be made by telegraphic transfer to their pre-designated bank accounts, net of bank charges. Dividends will generally be paid in the Class Currency of the relevant Distribution Class. With the prior consent of the Manager, arrangements can be made for dividends to be paid in any major currency other than the Class Currency of the relevant Distribution Class. Dividends (if any) will not be paid to any person other than the relevant registered Shareholder(s).

In the event that the net income attributable to the relevant Distribution Class during the relevant period is insufficient to pay dividends as declared, the Manager may in its discretion determine such dividends be paid from capital. Investors should note that where the payment of dividends are paid out of capital, this represents and amounts to a return or withdrawal of part of the amount originally invested (excluding par value) or capital gains attributable to that, and may result in an immediate decrease in the value of the Participating Shares of the relevant Distribution Class and will reduce any capital appreciation for the Shareholders of such Distribution Class. Any such payments out of capital will only be made to seek to maintain, so far as is reasonable, a stable payment per Participating Share of the relevant Distribution Class but the payment per Participating Share of a Distribution Class is not fixed and will vary according to economic and other circumstances and the ability of the Fund to support stable monthly payments without a long-term positive or negative impact on capital.

The Fund is managed in the interests of all Shareholders in line with the stated investment objective and is not managed to maintain a stable payment per Participating Share of any particular Distribution Class. To the extent that net income attributable to these Distribution Classes exceeds the amount declared payable, the excess amount will be reflected in the respective Net Asset Value of the Participating Shares of such Distribution Classes. Alternatively, the amount of dividend may exceed the net income attributable to these Distribution Classes. Accordingly, the level of dividend does not necessarily indicate the total return of the Fund. In order to assess the total return of the Fund, both the Net Asset Value movement (including dividend) and the dividend distribution should be considered. The Net Asset Value of relevant Classes will be adjusted by such amount of dividend on the ex-date.

Dividends of a Distribution Class declared, if any, shall be distributed among the Shareholders of the relevant Distribution Class rateably in accordance with the number of Participating Shares held by them on the record date as determined by the Manager in respect of the corresponding distribution. For the avoidance of doubt, only Shareholders whose names are entered on the register of Shareholders on such record date shall be entitled to the distribution declared in respect of the corresponding distribution. Any payment of distributions will be made in the Class Currency of the relevant Class of Participating Shares on a monthly basis.

VALUE PARTNERS GREATER CHINA HIGH YIELD INCOME FUND

(incorporated as an exempted open-ended investment company with limited liability in the Cayman Islands)

Where dividends of a Distribution Class comprise amounts from both income and capital, the composition of the latest dividends (i.e. the relative amounts paid out of net distributable income and capital) for the last 12 months are available by the Manager on request and also on the Manager's website www.valuepartners-group.com. Investors should note that the aforesaid website has not been reviewed or authorised by the SFC.

The Manager may amend the dividend policy subject to obtaining the SFC's prior approval and by giving not less than one month's prior notice to Shareholders.

TAXATION AND REGULATORY REQUIREMENTS

Investors should consult their professional advisers on the potential tax consequences of subscribing for, purchasing, holding or redeeming Participating Shares under the laws of their country of citizenship, domicile or residence.

As is the case with any investment, there can be no guarantee that the tax position or proposed tax position prevailing at the time an investment in the Fund is made will endure indefinitely. The following is based on the law and practice currently in force in the Cayman Islands and Hong Kong and, accordingly, is subject to changes therein.

Hong Kong

Profits tax

The Fund, as a collective investment scheme authorised under Section 104 of the SFO, is exempted from Hong Kong profits tax.

No tax will be payable by Shareholders in Hong Kong in respect of dividends or other income distributions of the Fund or in respect of any capital gains arising on a sale, redemption or other disposal of Shares, except that Hong Kong profits tax may arise where such transactions form part of a trade, profession or business carried on in Hong Kong.

Stamp duty

The sale or purchase of Hong Kong stocks by the Fund will be subject to stamp duty in Hong Kong at the current rate of HK$1 per HK$1,000 or part thereof of the price or market value of the stocks, whichever is higher, unless specific exemptions apply.

If the register of Shareholders of the Fund is maintained outside Hong Kong, no Hong Kong stamp duty will be payable by the Shareholders on the issue or transfer of Shares in the Fund.

If the register of Shareholders of the Fund is maintained in Hong Kong, no Hong Kong stamp duty will be payable by the Shareholders on the issue of Shares in the Fund. However, the transfer by Shareholders of Shares in the Fund may be subject to stamp duty in Hong Kong, depending on the mode and circumstances of the transfer. The current rate of Hong Kong stamp duty if applicable is HK$1 per HK$1,000 or part thereof of the price or market value of the Shares, whichever is higher.

Currently, the register of the Fund is located outside of Hong Kong and therefore the aforesaid fixed rate stamp duty and ad valorem stamp duty are being exempted.

PRC

By investing in securities (including China B-Shares, H-Shares and debt instruments) issued by PRC tax resident enterprises, irrespective of whether such securities are issued or distributed onshore or offshore (“PRC Securities”), the Fund may be subject to PRC taxes. The income (including interest income and capital gains) derived from the Fund’s investments in debt securities issued by non-PRC issuers outside China should not be subject to PRC taxes. The PRC government has implemented a number of tax reform policies in recent years. The current tax laws and regulations may be revised or amended in the future. Any revision or amendment in tax laws and regulations may affect the after-taxation profit of PRC companies and foreign investors in such companies.

Corporate Income Tax (“CIT”)

If the Fund is considered as a tax resident enterprise of the PRC, it will be subject to CIT at 25% on its worldwide taxable income. If the Fund is considered a non-tax resident enterprise with an establishment or place of business (“E&P”) in the PRC, the profits and gains attributable to that E&P would be subject to PRC CIT at 25%.

If the Fund is considered as a non-tax resident enterprise without an E&P in the PRC, it will be subject to CIT on a withholding basis (“WIT”), generally at a rate of 10%, to the extent it directly derives the PRC sourced passive income, unless a specific exemption or reduction is available under current PRC tax laws and regulations or relevant tax treaties.

The Manager intends to manage and operate the Fund in such a manner that the Fund should not be treated as tax resident enterprises of the PRC or non-tax resident enterprises with E&P in the PRC for CIT purposes, although this cannot be guaranteed. As such, it is expected that the Fund should not be subject to CIT on an assessment basis and would only be subject to WIT to the extent that the Fund directly derives PRC sourced income in respect of its investments in PRC Securities.

Interest/dividend

The Fund’s income from interests, dividends and profit distributions from PRC tax enterprise received by the Fund is generally subject to PRC WIT at a rate of 10%, unless such WIT is subject to reduction or exemption in accordance with PRC tax laws and regulations or an applicable tax treaty signed with the PRC.

VALUE PARTNERS GREATER CHINA HIGH YIELD INCOME FUND

(incorporated as an exempted open-ended investment company with limited liability in the Cayman Islands)

In respect of interests, under the PRC CIT Law and regulations, interest derived from government bonds issued by the State Council's finance departments and/or local government bonds approved by the State Council is exempt from PRC income tax.

Further, under the Arrangement between the Mainland of China and the Hong Kong Special Administrative Region for the Avoidance of Double Taxation and Prevention of Fiscal Evasion with respect to Taxes on Income (the "Mainland China-HK Arrangement"), if a Hong Kong tax resident receives interest income from PRC tax resident enterprises, the WIT rate can be reduced to 7% provided that the Hong Kong tax resident is the beneficial owner of the interest income under the Mainland China-HK Arrangement and other relevant conditions are satisfied, subject to the agreement from the PRC tax authorities. In practice, due to the practical difficulties in demonstrating that an investment fund is the beneficial owner of the interest income received, such investment fund is generally not entitled to the reduced WIT rate of 7%. In general, the prevailing rate of 10% should be applicable to the Fund.

In respect of dividends, under the Mainland China-HK Arrangement, dividends distributed by a PRC tax resident to a Hong Kong tax resident would be subject to a reduced PRC WIT rate of 5% provided (i) the Hong Kong tax resident is the beneficial owner of the dividend; (ii) the Hong Kong tax resident holds at least 25% of the equity of the PRC tax resident; and (iii) the relevant treaty conditions are satisfied. Due to the Fund's investment restriction, the Fund would not hold more than 10% of the ordinary shares issued by any single PRC issuer. In this connection, the Fund would not be able to enjoy the reduced WIT rate of 5% provided under the Mainland China-HK Arrangement.

On 22 November, 2018, the Ministry of Finance ("MOF") and State Administration for Taxation ("SAT") issued Caishui [2018] No.108 ("Circular 108"), which stipulated that foreign institutional investors are exempted from PRC WIT and Value Added Tax ("VAT") in respect of bond interest income received from 7 November 2018 to 6 November 2021 from investments in the PRC bond market.

Capital gains

(i) Capital gains realised from trading of China B-Shares and H-Shares

Under current PRC tax law, there are no specific rules or regulations governing the taxation of the disposal of these securities by foreign investors. Hence, the tax treatment for investment in China B-Shares and H-Shares is governed by the general taxing provisions of the CIT Law. Under such general taxing provision, the Fund could be technically subject to 10% WIT on the PRC sourced capital gains, unless exempt or reduced under relevant double tax treaties.

VALUE PARTNERS GREATER CHINA HIGH YIELD INCOME FUND

(incorporated as an exempted open-ended investment company with limited liability in the Cayman Islands)

Having said that, for China B-Shares and H-Shares invested by the Fund directly, there may be practical difficulty for the PRC tax authorities to impose and collect WIT on such capital gains. In practice, the 10% WIT has not been strictly enforced by the PRC tax authorities on capital gains derived by non-PRC tax resident enterprises from the trading of these securities with sales and purchase effected through stock exchanges.

Having consulted professional and independent tax adviser, the Manager has not made and currently has no intention to make provision in respect of WIT on gross realised and unrealised capital gains on trading of China B-Shares and H-Shares. The Manager will monitor the situation and if, in the opinion of the Manager, a provision is warranted, the change will be implemented by the Manager and Shareholders will be notified of the change.

(ii) Capital gains realised from the trading of PRC debt securities issued or listed offshore by PRC issuers

There are currently no specific tax rules or regulations governing the taxation of capital gains realised by foreign investors on the disposal of these securities. In the absence of specific rules, the general tax provisions under PRC CIT Law should apply and such general tax provisions stipulate that a non-resident enterprise with no place of effective management, establishment or place of business in the PRC would generally be subject to WIT at the rate of 10% on its PRC-sourced income, unless exempt or reduced under current PRC tax laws and regulations or relevant tax treaties. Based on the current interpretation of the SAT and the local PRC tax authorities, capital gains derived by foreign investors from investment in PRC debt securities should not be treated as PRC sourced income and thus should not be subject to PRC WIT. There are no written tax regulations issued by the PRC tax authorities to confirm that interpretation. However, as a matter of practice, such 10% PRC WIT on capital gains realised by non-PRC tax resident enterprises from the trading of PRC debt securities has not been strictly enforced by the PRC tax authorities.

Having consulted professional and independent tax adviser, the Manager will not make WIT provisions for the Fund on the gross realised and unrealised capital gains derived from PRC debt securities issued or listed offshore by PRC issuers. The implication of this is that if the Fund is liable to pay such withholding and other taxes, this may result in an unfavourable impact on the Net Asset Value of the Fund.

VALUE PARTNERS GREATER CHINA HIGH YIELD INCOME FUND

(incorporated as an exempted open-ended investment company with limited liability in the Cayman Islands)

(iii) Tax provision

It should be noted that the existing tax laws, regulations and practices may be revised or amended in the future, with the possibility that such changes will be applied with retrospective effect. In order to meet any potential tax liability for capital gains or income, the Manager reserves the right to provide for WIT on such gains or income and withhold the tax for the account of the Fund.

As such, if it transpires that the Fund is subject to actual tax liabilities, in respect of which the Manager had not made any provision, investors should note that the Net Asset Value of the Fund may be lowered, as the Fund will ultimately have to bear the full amount of tax liabilities. It should also be noted that the level of provision (if any) may be inadequate or excessive to meet actual PRC tax liabilities on investments made by the Fund. Consequently, Shareholders may be disadvantaged or advantaged depending upon the final tax liabilities, the level of provision and when they subscribed and/or redeemed their Shares. If the actual tax levied by the SAT is higher than that provided for by the Manager so that there is a shortfall in the tax provision amount (or if the Manager did not make any tax provision), investors should note that the Net Asset Value of the Fund may be adversely affected, as the Fund will ultimately have to bear the full amount of tax liabilities. In this case, the additional tax liabilities will only impact Shares in issue at the relevant time, and the then existing Shareholders and subsequent Shareholders will be disadvantaged as such Shareholders will bear, through the Fund, a disproportionately higher amount of tax liabilities as compared to that borne by persons who have already redeemed their Shares in the Fund. On the other hand, the actual tax liabilities may be lower than the tax provision made. In that case, those persons who have already redeemed their Shares before the actual tax liabilities are determined will not be entitled or have any right to claim any part of such overprovision and as such may be disadvantaged.

Upon the availability of a definitive tax assessment or the issue of announcements or regulations by the competent authorities promulgating definitive tax assessment rules, the Manager will, as soon as practicable, make relevant adjustments to the amount of tax provision as it considers necessary.

VAT and other surtaxes

The MOF and SAT issued the “Notice on the Comprehensive Roll-out of the B2V Transformation Pilot Program (“B2V Pilot Program”) (Caishui [2016] No. 36) (“Notice No. 36”) on 23 March 2016. The Notice No. 36 sets out that the B2V Pilot Program covers all the remaining industries of the program, including financial services. The Notice No. 36 has taken effect from 1 May 2016, unless otherwise stipulated therein.

The Notice No. 36 provides that VAT at 6% shall be levied on the difference between the selling and buying prices of those marketable securities, e.g. China A-Shares and RMB denominated debt securities issued by PRC issuers.

Based on the prevailing VAT regulations, capital gains derived by (i) QFIIs / RQFIIs on trading of marketable securities and (ii) foreign investors via the Shanghai-Hong Kong Stock Connect and the Shenzhen-Hong Kong Stock Connect are exempted from VAT. Therefore, to the extent any investments are conducted through these channels, the capital gains should be exempted from VAT. In addition, deposit interest income and interest received from government bonds and local government bonds are also exempt from VAT.

The current VAT regulations do not provide VAT exemption on capital gains derived from trading of China B-Shares. Having said that, the PRC tax authorities have not actively collected VAT from non-PRC tax resident enterprises on gains realized from China B-Shares in practice. Where capital gains are derived from trading of H-Shares, VAT in general is not imposed as the purchase and disposal are often concluded and completed outside PRC.

The prevailing VAT regulations do not specifically exempt VAT on interest received by foreign investors (including QFIIs and RQFIIs). Interest income on non-government bonds (including corporate bonds) should technically be subject to 6% VAT.

Dividend income or profit distributions on equity investment derived from PRC are not included in the taxable scope of VAT.

Circular 108 stipulated that foreign institutional investors are exempted from PRC WIT and VAT in respect of bond interest income received from 7 November 2018 to 6 November 2021 from investments in the PRC bond market.

VALUE PARTNERS GREATER CHINA HIGH YIELD INCOME FUND

(incorporated as an exempted open-ended investment company with limited liability in the Cayman Islands)

In addition, urban maintenance and construction tax (currently at the rate ranging from 1% to 7%), educational surcharge (currently at the rate of 3%) and local educational surcharge (currently at the rate of 2%) are imposed based on the VAT liabilities. The applicable levies depend on the location where VAT filing (if required) is done.

Stamp Duty

Stamp Duty under the PRC laws generally applies to the execution and receipt of all taxable documents listed in the PRC's Provisional Rules on Stamp Duty. Stamp Duty is levied on certain taxable documents executed or received in the PRC, including the contracts for the sale of China B-Shares traded on the PRC stock exchanges. In the case of contracts for sale of China B-Shares, such stamp duty is currently imposed on the seller but not on the purchaser, at the rate of 0.1%.

It is unclear whether PRC Stamp Duty that is imposed on the transfer of shares of PRC companies under the PRC Stamp Duty regulations would similarly apply to the acquisition and disposal of H-Shares by non-PRC investors outside the PRC. That said, PRC Stamp Duty is generally not imposed for trading of H-Shares in practice.

No PRC Stamp Duty is expected to be imposed on non-tax resident holders of government and corporate bonds, either upon issuance or upon a subsequent transfer of such bonds.

Further, no PRC Stamp Duty is expected to be imposed on non-tax resident holders of fund shares, either upon subscription or upon a subsequent redemption of such fund shares.

General

It should also be noted that the actual applicable tax rates imposed by the SAT may change from time to time. There is a possibility of the PRC tax rules, regulations and practice being changed and taxes being applied retrospectively. As such, any provision for taxation made by the Manager may be excessive or inadequate to meet final PRC tax liabilities. Consequently, Shareholders may be advantaged or disadvantaged depending upon the final tax liabilities, the level of provision and when they subscribed and/or redeemed their Participating Shares.

VALUE PARTNERS GREATER CHINA HIGH YIELD INCOME FUND

(incorporated as an exempted open-ended investment company with limited liability in the Cayman Islands)

If the actual applicable tax rate levied by SAT is higher than that provided for by the Manager so that there is a shortfall in the tax provision amount, investors should note that the Net Asset Value of the Fund may suffer more than the tax provision amount as the Fund will ultimately have to bear the additional tax liabilities. In this case, the then existing and new Shareholders will be disadvantaged. On the other hand, if the actual applicable tax rate levied by SAT is lower than that provided for by the Manager so that there is an excess in the tax provision amount, Shareholders who have redeemed their Participating Shares before SAT's ruling, decision or guidance in this respect will be disadvantaged as they would have borne the loss from the Manager's overprovision. In this case, the then existing and new Shareholders may benefit if the difference between the tax provision and the actual taxation liability under that lower tax rate can be returned to the account of the Fund as assets thereof. Notwithstanding the above provisions, Shareholders who have already redeemed their Shares in the Fund before the return of any overprovision to the account of the Fund will not be entitled or have any right to claim any part of such overprovision.

Shareholders should seek their own tax advice on their tax position with regard to their investment in the Fund.

It is possible that the current tax laws, regulations and practice in the PRC will change, including the possibility of taxes being applied retrospectively, and that such changes may result in higher taxation on PRC investments than currently contemplated.

Cayman Islands

Automatic Exchange of Financial Account Information

In addition to the US IGA, the Cayman Islands has also signed, along with over 100 other countries, a multilateral competent authority agreement to implement the OECD Standard for Automatic Exchange of Financial Account Information – Common Reporting Standard (“CRS”).

Cayman Islands regulations have been issued to give effect to the US IGA, and CRS (collectively, the “AEOI Regulations”). Pursuant to the AEOI Regulations, the Cayman Islands Tax Information Authority (the “TIA”) has published guidance notes on the application of the US IGA and CRS.

All Cayman Islands “Financial Institutions” (as defined in the relevant AEOI Regulations) are required to comply with the registration, due diligence and reporting requirements of the AEOI Regulations, unless they are able to rely on an exemption that allows them to become a “Non-Reporting Financial Institution” (as defined in the relevant AEOI Regulations) with respect to one or more of the AEOI regimes, in which case only the registration requirement would apply under CRS. The Fund does not propose to rely on any Non-Reporting Financial Institution exemption and therefore intends to comply with all of the requirements of the AEOI Regulations.

The Fund is required, amongst other things to (i) register with the IRS to obtain a Global Intermediary Identification Number (in the context of the US IGA only), (ii) register with the TIA, and thereby notify the TIA of its status as a “Reporting Financial Institution”, (iii) adopt and implement written policies and procedures setting out how it will address its obligations under CRS, (iv) conduct due diligence on its accounts to identify whether any such accounts are considered “Reportable Accounts”, and (v) report information on such Reportable Accounts to the TIA. The TIA will transmit the information reported to it to the overseas fiscal authority relevant to a reportable account (e.g. the IRS in the case of a US Reportable Account) annually on an automatic basis.

By investing in the Fund and/or continuing to invest in the Fund, investors shall be deemed to acknowledge that further information may need to be provided to the Fund, the Fund’s compliance with the AEOI Regulations may result in the disclosure of investor information, and investor information may be exchanged with overseas fiscal authorities. Where an investor fails to provide any requested information (regardless of the consequences), the Fund may be obliged, and/or reserves the right, to take any action and/or pursue all remedies at its disposal, in good faith and on reasonable grounds, including, without limitation, compulsory redemption of the investor concerned, to the extent permitted by applicable laws and the Fund’s constitutive documents and/or closure of the investor’s account. In accordance with TIA issued guidance, the Fund is required to close an investor’s account if a self-certification is not obtained within 90 days of account opening.

Each Shareholder and prospective investor should consult its own professional adviser(s) on the administrative and substantive implications of AEOI on its current or proposed investment in the Fund through financial institutions in Hong Kong.

The Fund will not be subject to supervision in respect of its investment activities or the constitution of the Fund's portfolio by CIMA or any other governmental authority in the Cayman Islands, although CIMA does have power to investigate the activities of the Fund in certain circumstances.

CIMA may take certain actions if it is satisfied that (a) a regulated mutual fund is or is likely to become unable to meet its obligations as they fall due, (b) a regulated mutual fund is carrying on or is attempting to carry on business or is winding up its business voluntarily in a manner that is prejudicial to its investors or creditors, (c) the direction and management of a regulated mutual fund has not been conducted in a fit and proper manner, or (d) a person holding a position as a director, manager or officer of a regulated mutual fund is not a fit and proper person to hold the respective position. Conflicts of Interest

It is possible that the Custodian, the Manager, the investment delegate (if any) or their respective Connected Persons, may, in the course of their business, have potential conflicts of interest in relation to the Fund. The Manager will take all reasonable steps to identify, prevent, manage and monitor any actual or potential conflicts of interest including conducting all transactions in good faith at arm's length and in the best interests of the Fund on normal commercial terms. If such conflicts arise, the Manager will, at all times, have regard in such event to its obligations to the Fund and the investors and will endeavour to ensure that such conflicts are resolved fairly. The Manager has put in place measures and safeguards to mitigate any potential conflicts of interest, including: (i) all transactions and dealings between the Manager or its Connected Person in relation to the Fund will be dealt with on arm's length basis; and (ii) where the Manager has a material interest in a transaction in relation to the Fund which would give rise to an actual or potential conflict of interest in such transaction, the Manager will not deal in such transaction unless it has taken reasonable steps to ensure that the Shareholders are treated fairly.

No person may be allowed to enter on behalf of the Fund into any underwriting or sub-underwriting contracts without the prior consent of the Custodian and unless the Fund or the Manager provides in writing that all commissions and fees payable to the Manager under such contracts, and all investments acquired pursuant to such contracts, will form part of the Fund's assets.

Articles of Association

The Fund's Articles provide, inter alia, as follows:-

1. Termination

The Fund may be wound up by a special resolution of the holders of the Participating Shares provided that (i) the winding-up of the Fund shall comply with the requirements of the Code; and (ii) the confirmation from the Custodian that it has no objection to such winding-up shall be obtained prior to such winding-up. On a winding up, the general assets of the Fund not attributable to the Fund will be paid to the holder of the Administrative Shares until such holder has received an amount equal to the par value of the Administrative Shares (currently being a total amount of US$100) and the balance, if any, will be transferred to the Fund. The net assets of the Fund will then be allocated between the different Classes of Participating Shares in the same manner as when determining the Net Asset Value per Participating Share of each Class and the amount attributable to each Class of Participating Shares will be paid to the holders of each such class pro rata in relation to the number of Participating Shares of the relevant Class held.

The Directors may resolve to compulsorily redeem all outstanding Participating Shares in the Fund if the Net Asset Value of the Fund falls below US$8,000,000 or such other amounts as the Directors may determine and notify to Shareholders from time to time provided that so long as the Fund is authorized pursuant to section 104 of the SFO, where necessary the Directors will seek the view of the Custodian prior to making a compulsory redemption and such compulsory redemption would only be made where the Custodian has no objection to it.

Any unclaimed proceeds or other cash held by the Custodian upon liquidation of the Fund or the redemption by the Fund of a class of Participating Shares, as the case may be, shall at the expiration of twelve months following dissolution of the Fund be paid to the Cayman Islands Government, subject to the right of the Custodian to deduct therefrom any expenses it may incur in making such payment.

- (ii) Subject to any special terms as to voting upon which any Shares in the Fund may be issued or may for the time being be held (of which there are none at present), at any general meeting on a show of hands every holder of a Participating Share carrying an entitlement to vote at the relevant meeting who is present in person shall have one vote for every such Participating Share (or fraction thereof) held by him and on a poll every member who is present in person or by proxy shall have one vote (or the corresponding fraction of a vote) for every such Participating Share (or fraction thereof) held by him. Administrative Shares do not carry any right to vote except where there are no Participating Shares in issue and outstanding, and except as otherwise provided in the Articles. Notwithstanding the aforesaid, for so long as the Fund is authorised pursuant to section 104 of the SFO then, except as otherwise agreed by the SFC, any resolution put to vote in a general meeting shall be decided on a poll.
- (iii) To be passed, resolutions (other than special resolutions) of the Fund in general meeting require a simple majority of the votes cast at the meeting at which the resolution is proposed. A special resolution is a resolution which is passed by not less than three-quarters of the votes of those Shareholders present, in person or by proxy, at any general meeting of which notice specifying the intention to propose such resolution as a special resolution has been duly given.

The instrument appointing a proxy shall be delivered at the registered office of the Fund in person, by registered mail or by any other method as approved by the Directors on a case-by-case basis.

Nothing in the Articles excludes the jurisdiction of the courts of Hong Kong to entertain an action concerning the Fund.

Share Capital

The authorised share capital of the Fund is US$5,000,000 divided into 100 Administrative Shares which have a nominal or par value of US$1.00 each and 4,999,900,000 Participating Shares which have a nominal or par value of US$0.001 each.

The Administrative Shares may only be issued to the Manager, and are issued for the purpose of enabling all the Participating Shares to be redeemed without liquidating the Fund. The Administrative Shares carry a return of the nominal amount paid up thereon on the winding up of the Fund.

All of the 100 Administrative Shares are issued, fully paid and held by the Manager.

Prospective investors should note that there are no provisions under the laws of the Cayman Islands or under the Articles conferring pre-emption rights on Shareholders. The Articles provide that the unissued Participating Shares are at the disposal of the Directors who may offer, allot, issue, grant options over or otherwise dispose of them to such persons, at such times, for such consideration and on such terms and conditions as the Directors think fit.

The Fund may by ordinary resolution increase its share capital, consolidate its shares or subdivide any of them into shares of a smaller amount or cancel authorised but unissued shares.

Holders of the affected class of Participating Shares may by special resolution alter or abrogate all or any of the special rights for the time being attached to such class of Participating Shares.

Subject to the provisions of Cayman Islands law and the rights of any holders of any class of Participating Shares, the Fund may by special resolution reduce its share capital or any capital redemption reserve or share premium account.

Transfer of Participating Shares

Participating Shares are transferable by instrument in writing signed by (or, in the case of a transfer by a body corporate, signed on behalf of or sealed by) the transferor and the transferee and registered in the register of Shareholders of the Fund. All forms for the transfer of Participating Shares sent to the Administrator's Delegate by fax or other written or electronic means specified by the Manager and the Administrator's Delegate must be followed by the duly signed original forms and the transfer of Participating Shares will only be effected upon receipt of the original executed transfer forms. The Directors may decline to register any transfer of Participating Shares over which the Fund has a lien or which will result in the Participating Shares to become held or owned by a non-qualified person (as defined in the following paragraph). The Directors may also decline to recognise any instrument of transfer unless it is deposited with the Administrator's Delegate or at such other place or places as the Directors may from time to time determine. The Directors may suspend the registration of transfers for not more than a total of 30 days in any year. In the case of the death of any one of joint Shareholders, the survivor or survivors will be the only person or persons recognised by the Fund as having any title to the interest of the deceased joint Shareholder in the Participating Shares registered in the names of such joint Shareholders.

Restriction on Shareholders

The Directors have power to impose such restrictions as they may think necessary for the purpose of ensuring that no Participating Shares are held by any person that may (i) cause a breach of any applicable law or requirement in any jurisdiction or be harmful or injurious to the business reputation of the Fund or any Service Provider; or (ii) prejudice the tax status or residence of the Fund or any of its Shareholders or any of its Service Providers; or (iii) cause the Fund or any of its Shareholders or any of its Service Providers to suffer any pecuniary, fiscal or regulatory disadvantage (provided that in the case of the Service Providers, such disadvantage impacts the ability, willingness or the terms on which the Service Providers provide services to the Fund which may negatively impact the interests of existing Shareholders of the Fund); or (iv) cause the Fund, any Shareholder, the Manager, the Administrator or the Custodian or any of their delegates appointed to provide services to the Fund to be required to comply with any registration or filing requirements in any jurisdiction with which it would not otherwise be required to comply (a "non-qualified person"). A person who becomes aware that he is holding or owning Participating Shares in the Fund in breach of any such restriction is required either to deliver to the Fund a written request for redemption for his Participating Shares in accordance with the Articles or to transfer the same to a person who would not thereby be a non-qualified person. If it comes to the notice of the Directors that any Participating Shares are so held by any non-qualified person the Directors may give notice to such person requiring the redemption or transfer of such Participating Shares in accordance with the provisions of the Articles.

In this case:
 - (1) the underlying investments of the subsidiary, together with the direct investments made by the Fund, must in aggregate comply with the requirements of Chapter 7 of the Code;
 - (2) any increase in the overall fees and charges directly or indirectly borne by the Shareholders or the Fund as a result must be clearly disclosed in this Explanatory Memorandum; and
 - (3) the Fund must produce the reports required by Chapter 5.10(b) of the Code in a consolidated form to include the assets (including investment portfolio) and liabilities of the subsidiary company as part of those of the Fund.

The Fund shall not:

- (A) invest in a security of any class in any company or body if any director or officer of the Manager individually owns more than 0.5% of the total nominal amount of all the issued securities of that class or collectively the directors and officers of the Manager own more than 5% of those securities;
- (B) invest in any type of real estate (including buildings) or interests in real estate (including options or rights, but excluding shares in real estate companies and interests in REITs);
- (C) make short sales if as a result the Fund would be required to deliver securities exceeding 10% of the latest available Net Asset Value of the Fund (and for this purpose (i) securities sold short must be actively traded on a market where short selling is permitted; and (ii) short selling is carried out in accordance with all applicable laws and regulations);
- (D) carry out any naked or uncovered short sale of securities;

(incorporated as an exempted open-ended investment company with limited liability in the Cayman Islands)

- (E) lend or make a loan out of the assets of the Fund, except to the extent that, in either case, the acquisition of bonds or the making of a deposit (within the applicable investment restrictions) might constitute a loan;
- (F) subject to Chapter 7.3 of the Code, assume, guarantee, endorse or otherwise become directly or contingently liable for or in connection with any obligation or indebtedness of any person, save and except for reverse repurchase transactions in compliance with the Code;
- (G) enter into any obligation in respect of the Fund or acquire any asset or engage in any transaction for the account of the Fund which involves the assumption of any liability which is unlimited. For the avoidance of doubt, the liability of Shareholders must be limited to their investments in the Fund; or
- (H) apply any part of the Fund in the acquisition of any investments which are for the time being nil paid or partly paid in respect of which a call is due to be made for any sum unpaid on such investments unless such call could be met in full out of cash or near cash forming part of the Fund whereby such amount of cash or near cash has not been segregated to cover a future or contingent commitment arising from transactions in FDIs for the purposes of Chapter 7.29 and 7.30 of the Code.

Borrowing restrictions

The maximum borrowing of the Fund shall not exceed 10% of its latest available Net Asset Value. Where the Manager so determines, the Fund's permitted borrowing level may be a lower percentage. In determining for the purpose of these borrowing limits, back-to-back loans do not count as borrowing. The assets of the Fund may be charged or pledged as security for any such borrowings in accordance with the provisions of the Articles.

Although the Fund currently does not engage in securities financing transactions, for the avoidance of doubt, securities lending transactions and sale and repurchase transactions in compliance with the requirements of the Code are not subject to the limitations in this section.

Financial derivative instruments

Subject always to the provisions of the Articles, the Code and the "Investment Objective and Policies" section above, the Manager may on behalf of the Fund enter into any transactions in relation to swaps or other FDIs, for hedging or non-hedging (investment) purposes:

VALUE PARTNERS GREATER CHINA HIGH YIELD INCOME FUND

(incorporated as an exempted open-ended investment company with limited liability in the Cayman Islands)

Hedging purposes

The Fund may acquire FDIs for hedging purposes. FDIs are considered as being acquired for hedging purposes if they meet all of the following criteria:

- (a) they are not aimed at generating any investment return;
- (b) they are solely intended for the purpose of limiting, offsetting or eliminating the probability of loss of risks arising from the investments being hedged;
- (c) although they may not necessarily reference to the same underlying assets, they should relate to the same asset class with high correlation in terms of risks and return, and involve taking opposite positions, in respect of the investments being hedged; and
- (d) they exhibit price movements with high negative correlation with the investments being hedged under normal market conditions.

The Manager, where it deems necessary, shall cause hedging arrangement to be adjusted or re-positioned with due consideration on the fees, expenses and costs, to enable the Fund to meet its hedging objective in stressed or extreme market conditions.

Non-hedging (investment) purposes

Subject to the provisions under the “Investment Objective and Policies” section above, the Fund may acquire FDIs for non-hedging purposes (“investment purposes”), subject to the limit that the Fund’s net exposure relating to these FDIs (“net derivative exposure”) does not exceed 50% of its latest available Net Asset Value, provided that this limit may be exceeded in such circumstances as permitted under the Code, handbook, code and/or guideline issued by the SFC from time to time or permitted by the SFC from time to time. In this regard:

- (a) for the purpose of calculating net derivative exposure, the positions of FDIs acquired by the Fund for investment purposes are converted into the equivalent position in the underlying assets of the FDIs, taking into account the prevailing market value of the underlying assets, the counterparty risk, future market movements and the time available to liquidate the positions;
- (b) the net derivative exposure should be calculated in accordance with the requirements and guidance issued by the SFC which may be updated from time to time; and
- (c) for the avoidance of doubt, FDIs acquired for hedging purposes will not be counted towards the 50% limit referred to in this paragraph so long as there is no residual derivative exposure arising from such hedging arrangement.

(incorporated as an exempted open-ended investment company with limited liability in the Cayman Islands)

The actual level of leverage may be higher than such expected level in exceptional circumstances, for example when there are sudden movements in markets and/or investment prices.

Restrictions applicable to FDIs

The FDIs invested by the Fund shall be either listed or quoted on a stock exchange, or dealt in over-the-counter market and comply with the following provisions:

- (a) the underlying assets consist solely of shares in companies, debt securities, money market instruments, units/shares of collective investment schemes, deposits with substantial financial institutions, Government and other public securities, highly liquid physical commodities (including gold, silver, platinum and crude oil), financial indices, interest rates, foreign exchange rates, currencies or other asset classes acceptable to the SFC, in which the Fund may invest according to its investment objectives and policies.
- (b) where the Fund invests in index-based FDIs, the underlying assets of such FDIs are not required to be aggregated for the purposes of the investment restrictions set out in paragraphs (a), (b), (c) and (f) of the section headed “Investment Restrictions” above provided that the index is in compliance with the relevant requirements under Chapter 8.6 of the Code;
- (c) the counterparties to over-the-counter FDI transactions or their guarantors are substantial financial institutions or such other entity acceptable to the SFC;
- (d) subject to paragraphs (a) and (b) under the section entitled “Investment Restrictions” above, the Fund’s net counterparty exposure to a single entity arising from transactions of the over-the-counter FDIs may not exceed 10% of the latest available Net Asset Value of the Fund, provided that the exposure of the Fund to a counterparty of over-the-counter FDIs may be lowered by the collateral received (if applicable) by the Fund and shall be calculated with reference to the value of collateral and positive mark to market value of the over-the-counter FDIs with that counterparty, if applicable; and
- (e) the valuation of the FDIs is marked-to-market daily, subject to regular, reliable and verifiable valuation conducted by the Manager or the Custodian or their nominees, agents or delegates independent of the issuer of the FDIs through measures such as the establishment of a valuation committee or engagement of third party services. The FDIs can be sold, liquidated or closed by an offsetting transaction at any time at their fair value at the initiative of the Fund. Further, the Administrator should be adequately equipped with the necessary resources to conduct independent marked-to-market valuation and to verify the valuation of the FDIs on a regular basis.

VALUE PARTNERS GREATER CHINA HIGH YIELD INCOME FUND

(incorporated as an exempted open-ended investment company with limited liability in the Cayman Islands)

For the avoidance of doubt, restrictions and limitations on counterparty as set out in paragraphs (a) and (b) under the section entitled “Investment Restrictions” above and paragraph (d) of this section will not apply to FDI that are:

- (A) transacted on an exchange where the clearing house performs a central counterparty role; and
- (B) marked-to-market daily in the valuation of their financial derivative instrument positions and subject to margining requirements at least on a daily basis.

Subject to the above, the Fund may invest in FDI provided that the exposure to the underlying assets of the FDI, together with the other investments of the Fund, may not in aggregate exceed the corresponding investment restrictions or limitations applicable to such underlying assets as set out in the paragraphs (a), (b), (c), (f), (g), (j)(1), (j)(2), provisos of (i) to (iii) of paragraph (j), (k) and (B) under the section entitled “Investment Restrictions” above.

The Fund shall at all times be capable of meeting all its payment and delivery obligations incurred under transactions in FDI (whether for hedging or for investment purposes). The Manager shall, as part of its risk management process, monitor to ensure that the transactions in FDI are adequately covered on an ongoing basis. For such purposes, assets that are used to cover the Fund’s payment and delivery obligations incurred under transactions in FDI should be free from any liens and encumbrances, exclude any cash or near cash for the purpose of meeting a call on any sum unpaid on a security, and cannot be applied for any other purposes.

A transaction in FDI which gives rise to a future commitment or contingent commitment of the Fund should also be covered as follows:

- (a) in the case of FDI transactions which will, or may at the discretion of the Custodian or the Manager, be cash settled, the Fund should at all times hold sufficient assets that can be liquidated within a short timeframe to meet the payment obligation; and
- (b) in the case of FDI transactions which will, or may at the counterparty’s discretion, require physical delivery of the underlying assets, the Fund should hold the underlying assets in sufficient quantity at all times to meet the delivery obligation. If the Manager considers the underlying assets to be liquid and tradable, the Fund may hold other alternative assets in sufficient quantity as cover, provided that such assets may be readily converted into the underlying assets at any time to meet the delivery obligation.

VALUE PARTNERS GREATER CHINA HIGH YIELD INCOME FUND

(incorporated as an exempted open-ended investment company with limited liability in the Cayman Islands)

In the case of holding alternative assets as cover, the Fund shall apply safeguard measures, such as to apply haircut where appropriate, to ensure that such alternative assets held are sufficient to meet its future obligations.

The above policies relating to FDIs apply to financial instruments which embeds a financial derivative as well.

Collateral valuation and management policy

The Manager employs a collateral management policy in relation to collateral received in respect of over-the-counter (OTC) FDI transactions entered into in respect of the Fund.

The Fund may receive collateral from a counterparty to an OTC FDI transaction, so as to reduce its counterparty risk exposure as set out in paragraph (d) under the section entitled “Restrictions applicable to FDIs” above, provided that the collateral complies with the requirements set out below:

- Nature and quality of collateral – unless otherwise agreed by the Manager, eligible collateral include:
 - o cash;
 - o government or other public securities including debt securities;
 - o certificates of deposit;
 - o letters of credit which are unconditional and irrevocable and which have a credit rating of A1/P1 or better; and
 - o certificates issued by securities exchange clearing systems;
- Selection of counterparties – The Manager has counterparty selection policies and control measures to manage the credit risks of counterparties of OTC FDI transactions. In particular, the counterparties for OTC FDI transactions will be entities with legal personality typically located in Organisation for Economic Co-operation and Development (OECD) jurisdictions (but may also be located outside such jurisdictions), and be subject to ongoing supervision by a regulatory authority;

VALUE PARTNERS GREATER CHINA HIGH YIELD INCOME FUND

(incorporated as an exempted open-ended investment company with limited liability in the Cayman Islands)

- Liquidity – collateral must be sufficiently liquid and tradable that it can be sold quickly at a robust price that is close to pre-sale valuation. Collateral should normally trade in a deep and liquid marketplace with transparent pricing. Regular stress tests are carried out under normal and exceptional liquidity conditions to enable an adequate assessment of the liquidity risks attached to the collateral;
- Valuation – collateral should be marked-to-market daily by using independent pricing source;
- Issuer credit quality – asset used as collateral must be of high credit quality and should be replaced immediately as soon as the credit quality of the collateral or the issuer of the asset being used as collateral has deteriorated to such a degree that it would undermine the effectiveness of the collateral;
- Haircut – a haircut is a discount applied to the value of a collateral asset to account for the fact that its valuation, or liquidity profile, may deteriorate over time. Collateral should be subject to prudent haircut policy, which should be based on the market risks of the assets used as collateral in order to cover potential maximum expected decline in collateral values during liquidation before a transaction can be closed out with due consideration on stress period and volatile markets:
 - o the haircut policy takes into account the price volatility of the asset used as collateral and, where appropriate, other specific characteristics of the collateral, including, among others, asset types, issuer creditworthiness, residual maturity, price sensitivity, optionality, expected liquidity in stressed period, impact from foreign exchange, and correlation between securities accepted as collateral and the securities involved in the transactions; and
 - o the haircut policy applied to posted collateral will be negotiated on a counterparty basis and will vary depending on the class of asset received by the Fund. Further details of the applicable haircut arrangement for each asset class is available from the Manager upon request;
- Diversification – collateral must be appropriately diversified to avoid concentrated exposure to any single entity and/or entities within the same group and the Fund’s exposure to issuer(s) of the collateral should be taken into account in compliance with the corresponding investment restrictions and limitations set out in the paragraphs (a), (b), (c), (f), (g), (j)(1), (j)(2), provisos of (i) to (iii) of paragraph (j), (k) and (B) under the section entitled “Investment Restrictions” above;

VALUE PARTNERS GREATER CHINA HIGH YIELD INCOME FUND

(incorporated as an exempted open-ended investment company with limited liability in the Cayman Islands)

- Correlation – the value of the collateral should not have any significant correlation with the creditworthiness of the counterparty or the issuer of the FDIs in such a way that it would undermine the effectiveness of the collateral. As such, securities issued by the counterparty or the issuer of the FDIs or any of their related entities should not be used as collateral;
- Management of operational and legal risks – the Manager shall have appropriate systems, operational capabilities and legal expertise for proper collateral management;
- Independent custody – collateral must be held by the Custodian of the Fund;
- Safe-keeping of collateral –
 - o any non-cash assets received by the Fund from a counterparty on a title transfer basis (in respect of an OTC FDI transaction) shall be held by the Custodian, or a nominee, agent or delegate appointed in relation the assets of the Fund. This is not applicable in the event that there is no title transfer and, in which case, the collateral will be held by a third party custodian which is unrelated to the provider of the collateral; and
 - o assets provided by the Fund on a title transfer basis shall no longer belong to the Fund. The counterparty may use those assets at its absolute discretion. Assets provided to a counter party other than on a title transfer basis shall be held by the Custodian or a nominee, agent or delegate appointed in relation the assets of the Fund;
- Enforceability – collateral must be readily accessible/enforceable by the Custodian without further recourse to the issuer of the FDIs;
- Re-investment of collateral – cash collateral received may only be reinvested in short-term deposits, high quality money market instruments and money market funds authorised under Chapter 8.2 of the Code or regulated in a manner generally comparable with the requirements of the SFC and acceptable to the SFC, and subject to corresponding investment restrictions or limitations applicable to such investments or exposure as set out in Chapter 7 of the Code and the following restrictions:
 - o non-cash collateral received may not be sold, re-invested or pledged;

VALUE PARTNERS GREATER CHINA HIGH YIELD INCOME FUND

(incorporated as an exempted open-ended investment company with limited liability in the Cayman Islands)

- o the portfolio of assets from re-investment of cash collateral shall comply with the requirements as set out in Chapter 8.2 (f) and 8.2(n) of the Code;
- o cash collateral received is not allowed to be further engaged in any securities financing transactions;
- o when the cash collateral received is reinvested into other investment(s), such investment(s) is/are not allowed to be engaged in any securities financing transactions; and
- o up to 100% of the cash collateral received by the Fund may be reinvested.

For the purposes of re-investment of cash collateral received, “money market instruments” refer to securities normally dealt in on the money markets, including government bills, certificates of deposit, commercial papers, short-term notes and bankers’ acceptances, etc. In assessing whether a money market instrument is of high quality, at a minimum, the credit quality and the liquidity profile of the money market instruments will be taken into account;

- Encumbrances - collateral should be free of prior encumbrances; and
- Collateral generally should not include (i) structured products whose payouts rely on embedded FDIs or synthetic instruments; (ii) securities issued by special purpose vehicles, special investment vehicles or similar entities; (iii) securitised products; or (iv) unlisted collective investment schemes.

The requirements under paragraphs (a) and (b) under the section entitled “Investment Restrictions” above will also apply in the case of the “diversification” and “re-investment of collateral” requirements of this section.

A description of holdings of collateral (including but not limited to a description of the nature of collateral, identity of the counterparty providing the collateral, value of the Fund (by percentage) secured/covered by collateral with breakdown by asset class/nature and credit rating (if applicable)) will be disclosed in the Fund’s annual and interim reports for the relevant period.

Breach of Investment and Borrowing Restrictions

If any of the restrictions or limitations set out above is breached, the Manager will, as a priority objective, take all necessary steps within a reasonable period of time to remedy such breach, taking due account the interests of the Shareholders.

General

The Articles of Association of the Fund give powers to the Directors to effect the compulsory redemption of Participating Shares issued to, or decline to register any transfer of Participating Shares to, or held for the benefit of, any person who is not a Qualified Holder or who may, either alone or together with others, in the sole and conclusive opinion of the Directors might cause a breach of any applicable law or requirement in any jurisdiction or result in the Fund, any Shareholder or any of its Service Providers (as defined below) incurring any liability to taxation or suffering any other pecuniary disadvantage which the Fund, any Shareholder or any Service Provider might not otherwise have incurred or suffered or which might subject the Fund, any Shareholder or any Service Provider to regulation or a requirement to register or obtain any form of licence or approval in any jurisdiction (provided that in the case of the Service Providers, such disadvantage impacts the ability, willingness or the terms on which the Service Providers provide services to the Fund which may negatively impact the interests of existing Shareholders of the Fund).

The Directors also have power to compulsorily redeem a Shareholder's Participating Shares in accordance with the Articles, including to settle any amount due from the Shareholder to the Fund, the Manager or any service provider to the Fund. If the Net Asset Value of the Fund is at any time below US$8,000,000 (or such other amounts as the Directors may determine and notify to Shareholders from time to time) and if the Directors at such time so resolve, all Participating Shares become compulsorily redeemable.

Any information given or representations made by any dealer, salesman or other person and (in either case) not contained herein should be regarded as unauthorised and accordingly must not be relied upon.

Potential applicants for Participating Shares should inform themselves as to (a) the possible tax consequences; (b) the legal requirements; and (c) any foreign exchange restrictions or exchange control requirements which they might encounter under the laws of the countries of their incorporation, citizenship, residence or domicile and which might be relevant to the subscription, holding or disposal of Participating Shares.

Investors should seek professional advice from their tax consultants to determine the possible tax consequences of an investment in the Fund. In particular, any distributions may be reduced if any tax, duty or levy fee or any other cost is payable by the Fund as a result of any action taken by the relevant taxing authority or court of competent jurisdiction. No representation or warranty is made, or should be implied, by the Manager, the Directors or the Fund as to the availability of taxation deductions or any other taxation implications in relation to the Fund or in respect of the receipt by the Shareholders of any distributions.

Investment in the Participating Shares is speculative and involves significant risk. Potential subscribers should understand such risks and have the financial ability and willingness to accept them for an extended period of time. An investment should form only a part of a complete investment program and potential subscribers must be able to bear the loss of its entire investment. Investors should refer to the section headed "Risks Factors" below.

6. The first paragraph under the sub-heading “Accumulation Classes” under the heading “Distributions” on page 97 of the Explanatory Memorandum shall be deleted in its entirety and replaced with the following:

“The Manager currently does not intend to pay dividends with respect to Class A HKD Hedged Acc Shares, Class A AUD Hedged Acc Shares, Class A CAD Hedged Acc Shares, Class A EUR Hedged Acc Shares, Class A GBP Hedged Acc Shares, Class A JPY Hedged Acc Shares, Class A NZD Hedged Acc Shares, Class A RMB Acc Shares, Class A RMB Hedged Acc Shares, Class z USD Acc Shares, Class z EUR Acc Shares, Class z EUR Hedged Acc Shares, Class z RMB Acc Shares, Class z RMB Hedged Acc Shares, Class P USD Acc Shares, Class P HKD Acc Shares, Class P SGD Hedged Acc Shares, Class X USD Acc Shares, Class I USD Acc Shares, Class I EUR Acc Shares, Class I EUR Hedged Acc Shares, Class I RMB Acc Shares and Class I RMB Hedged Acc Shares (collectively referred to as the “Accumulation Classes”). Therefore, any net income and net realized profits attributable to the Participating Shares of the Accumulation Classes will be reflected in their respective Net Asset Values.”

7. The first paragraph under the sub-heading “Distribution Classes” under the heading “Distributions” on page 97 of the Explanatory Memorandum shall be deleted in its entirety and replaced with the following:

8. The following risk factor “Risk relating to RMB Denominated Share Classes” shall be inserted immediately after the risk factor “Offshore RMB Market risk” under the heading “Risk Factors” on page 66 of the Explanatory Memorandum:

“The Base Currency of the Fund is in USD and the RMB denominated share classes are denominated in RMB. The PRC government’s policies on exchange control and repatriation restrictions are subject to change, which may adversely impact the holders of RMB denominated share classes.

Furthermore, as a result of the restrictions by the PRC government on cross-border RMB fund flows, the availability of RMB outside of the PRC is limited. Although it is expected that the Offshore

RMB Market will continue to grow in depth and size, its growth is subject to many constraints as a result of PRC laws and regulations on foreign exchange. There is no assurance that new PRC regulations will not be promulgated or the settlement agreement on the clearing of RMB business between the People's Bank of China and Bank of China (Hong Kong) Limited will not be terminated or amended in the future which will have the effect of restricting availability of CNH. The limited availability of CNH may affect and/or cause delays in the Fund's ability to pay dividends and/or redemption proceeds in RMB to holders of RMB denominated share classes. To the extent the Manager is required to source CNH to pay to holders of RMB denominated share classes, there is no assurance that it will be able to source such RMB on satisfactory terms, if at all."

9. The following paragraphs shall be inserted immediately after the ninth paragraph under the sub-heading "Classes of Participating Shares" under the heading "Investing in the Fund" on page 37 of the Explanatory Memorandum:

"The Subscription Price for RMB denominated share classes are calculated and quoted in RMB. Accordingly, an investor applying for RMB denominated share classes will be required to pay the subscription monies in RMB. As such, an investor may need to have an RMB account as the investor will need to accumulate sufficient RMB to pay the subscription monies, or if an application is not successful or is successful only in part, the whole or appropriate portion of the monies paid will need to be returned to the investor by crediting such amount into its RMB account.

Following the expansion of the RMB trade settlement scheme, there are no longer any restrictions on banks in Hong Kong in establishing RMB accounts. However, different banks may have different and/or additional restrictions. There may be additional rules, regulations and restrictions under contemplation or to be issued by the relevant Hong Kong authorities that may be relevant to investments in the Fund. Investors should check with their own banks or professional advisers for updates and details."

C. Ancillary and Miscellaneous Changes and Updates

1. The sub-heading "Stamp duty" under the sub-heading "Hong Kong" under the heading "Taxation and Regulatory Requirements" on page 103 of the Explanatory Memorandum shall be deleted in its entirety and replaced with the following:

"The sale or purchase of Hong Kong stocks by the Fund will be subject to stamp duty in Hong Kong at the prevailing rate or part thereof of the price or market value of the stocks, whichever is higher, unless specific exemptions apply.

If the register of Shareholders of the Fund is maintained outside Hong Kong, no Hong Kong stamp duty will be payable by the Shareholders on the issue or transfer of Shares in the Fund.

If the register of Shareholders of the Fund is maintained in Hong Kong, no Hong Kong stamp duty will be payable by the Shareholders on the issue of Shares in the Fund. However, the transfer by Shareholders of Shares in the Fund may be subject to stamp duty in Hong Kong, depending on the mode and circumstances of the transfer.

Currently, the register of the Fund is located outside of Hong Kong and therefore the aforesaid fixed rate stamp duty and ad valorem stamp duty are being exempted."
